

To Take Part
In Open House,
Fiesta At YWCA

A fiesta and open house, with CKLW disk jockey Eddie Chase emceeing, is scheduled by Central Branch YWCA, 2200 Witherspoon Street, Detroit, for Wednesday evening, September 18.

Visitors arriving at 6:30 p.m. will have an opportunity to tour the YWCA building, to view slides of South America and to see demonstrations of YWCA classes in photography, ceramics, cake decorating, sketching, jewelry making and flower arranging.

Among the instructors giving class demonstrations will be Miss Linda Tate, 21024 Ontaga, Farmington, who teaches jewelry making.

At 7:30 p.m., members of the Central Branch water ballet will give a "water carnival" in the pool. This will be followed at 8 p.m. by a "festival of song and dance," announced by Mr. Chase, after which he will distribute prizes contributed by his radio sponsors.

Social dancing will climax the evening.

Patricia Cox
Feted At Many
Bridal Showers

Friends of Patricia Ann Cox, bride-to-be, have been busy helping her secure the 101 small items necessary to establish a new home.

Three roommates of Pat's at Michigan State University recently held a miscellaneous shower for her at the dormitory, with all the girls on the floor in attendance.

Another miscellaneous shower was given by Marilyn Goers of Farmington at her home on Brookdale. Marilyn will be one of Pat's bridesmaids at her forthcoming wedding on September 14. About 25 guests were present.

Saturday, September 7, was an especially busy day for Miss Cox. Mrs. Dan Guy of Shawasssee entertained 12 at a luncheon in her honor. Guests brought gifts to use in the bathroom. That same evening, Mrs. John Cragg of Berkley, Michigan, an aunt of the bride-to-be, entertained about 25 relatives. Knowing well the meaning of the expression, "The way to a man's heart is through his stomach," guests that evening were asked to bring gifts to furnish and fill the pantry.

During the summer, Miss Cox has been employed at Catalytic Combustion Corporation and, before returning to Lansing, the girls she worked with gave her a personal shower. Miss Long was hostess for the party at her home on Corbitt Avenue in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Miller of Gobles, Michigan, are the parents of the bridegroom-to-be, Zane Miller. They will give the rehearsal dinner on September 13 at Guffin's King of Beef, Farmington. Patricia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Steele Cox, Jr. Her marriage will take place at Grace Lutheran Church.

Gondaleers To Play
For Guys-Dolls Dance

Al's Gondaleers Dance Band will provide the music for the Guys and Dolls Club dance this Friday evening, September 13.

A record attendance was reported at last Friday night's dance with 44 teens packing into the V.P.W. Hall on 7 Mile at Grand River. Officials indicated that if record numbers continue to attend these weekly Friday night dances, larger quarters will definitely be needed.

Dances are held from 8 to 11:30 p.m. under the joint sponsorship of the Clarenceville Optimists and Opti-Mrs. Clubs.

ENGAGED—Mr. and Mrs. E.L. Beuerle of Quail Hollow Road announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathleen Ann, to James B. Rickard of Flint, Michigan. He is the son of Major-General and Mrs. R.V. Rickard of Medford, Oregon. Both are graduates of Michigan State University and Miss Beuerle is now teaching in the Farmington School system.

No date has been set for the wedding.

MRS. DAVID ROBINSON

Married At Outer Drive
Faith Lutheran Church

Inez Motzkus, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Norwall of Wellington, became the bride of David Robinson at a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening, August 31, at 7 o'clock. The couple were united by the Reverend Carl Kemp at the Outer Drive Faith Lutheran Church.

The bride wore a gown of silk organza which fell gracefully over white tulle. A fingertip veil fell from a crown of lace, seed pearls and iridescent sequins. A white orchid centered the bridal bouquet of sweetheart roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Gail Brummel, as maid-of-honor, was groomed in emerald green tulle with mint green accents. Her circular veil, scattered with pearls, was caught to a heart-shaped cap and her shoes were of matching green.

The bride's going away costume was a brown silk sheath dress with a striped bolero jacket and brown accessories. The newlyweds traveled through northern Michigan on their honeymoon. They will make their home in Kalamazoo. The groom is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity at Western Michigan University where the couple are both students.

The rehearsal dinner was given by the groom's parents at Nau's Snow White Restaurant on Grand River. After the rehearsal, the wedding party was entertained at the Norwall home. On Sunday a number of friends dropped in at the Norwalls' for punch and a view of the wedding gifts.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Clark Bentley of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bumgardner, Miss Mary Stader, Mr. and Mrs. Jon Strode and Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Stroh and daughter Susan, all of Toledo.

Bridesmaids were Mary Ellen Robinson, Dee Braamse and Gail White. They wore mint green ballerina length gowns with emerald accents and matching shoes. All of the attendants carried bouquets of white Fuji mums, pale green

Players To Stage
Old Time Play
"Our Town" Day

A highlight attraction on the "Our Town" program this Saturday, September 14, at the McWilliams Barn on Twelve Mile at Power Road will be the staging of a hilarious, old-time "meller-dram" by the Farmington Players.

Offered to provide a laugh-a-minute for audiences, the play entitled, "The Widow's Flight," or "Virtue Victorious" will be presented at 8 p.m. and again at 7:30 p.m.

The play is being presented under the direction of Mrs. Fred Hamilton. Included in the cast are: Mrs. Charles Hannan, the heroine; Mrs. Franklin Sullivan, her mother; Mrs. George Mullen, her sister; Mrs. Hilmer Howard, the hero; Franklin Sullivan, his father; John Rogers, the villain; Fred Hamilton, the policeman who brings about his downfall, and Mrs. Warren Lamb, two neighborhood gossips who contribute to the widow's plight.

Excellent barber shop melody is provided in the play by George Mullen, Farrel Weber, Pat Ryan and John Courville, with Herman Berkholtz at the portable piano. Music director, Mrs. John Rogers, has enlisted the whole zany plot with some original words and music.

Production and staging are being done by Bill Wilson, George Hamilton, Palmer Bissell, Richard Hixson, Wesley Orr, Harry Farmer, Don Briggs, Alan Thayer, Charles Hannan and Duncan Carter. Bob Wilson is assisting with makeup.

The Players have turned over the use of the entire McWilliams Barn for the annual "Our Town" program. Proceeds from the play as well as all other activities on the program will be contributed to the Farmington Community House Association Fund.

Gives Talk On Camp Fire Girls

A talk on the Camp Fire Girl program was given last Tuesday evening by Mrs. Neil Wasserberger, executive director of the Pontiac Council of Camp Fire Girls, at the home of Mrs. Robert White at 22880 Manning.

Mrs. Wasserberger showed color slides of Camp Fire Girls and Bluebird, junior Camp Fire Girls group, activities to the group of area mothers attending the meeting.

The need for leadership in the Farmington area was stressed. It was pointed out that anyone interested in taking a course so that they can serve as leaders for either Camp Fire Girls or Bluebird groups should contact Mrs. White at GR 4-4936.
