Teenage Volunteers Make (Hour) History At St. Mary Hospital

Two years ago "someone new in pinafores" appeared on the halls of St. Mary Hospital through the auspices of the Northwestern chapter of the American Red Cross which had trained and placed at St. Mary Hospital a group of high school juniors and seniors to serve as volunteers in the "Youth Service in Hospitals of the American Red Cross."

Wearing striped blue and white uniforms the young men and women quickly won a place in the hearts of patients and hospital staff with their cheerful personalities and faithful service.

Month after month their volunteer activities were extended into practically every department of the hospital.

By the summer of 1964, the young people could measure their summer hours of volunteer service in terms of 2,942 hours and 15 minutes.

The volunteers who have distinguished themselves among the strong competition of their colleagues were: MISS LINDA GREENING, 16, 3528 Parkdale, Livonia, a student at Franklin High with 185.35 hours; MISS JACKIE CLARKE (co-captain of the group), 16, Garfield, Redford Township, a student at Thurston High with 167 hours; MISS KAREN LETTKEMAN, 17, 11222 Lacerne, Redford Township, a student at Thurston High with 140 hours; MISS VIVIAN HAHN, 16, 16429 Kinloch, Redford Township, a student at Redford Union High with 139.70 hours of service this summer.

Mrs. Anna Gufsa, coordinator of the Volunteer program at St. Mary Hospital, stated that this interesting volunteer service helps young people find their future is revealed in the number who upon graduation from high school enroll in medical, nursing, laboratory, x-ray and social work programs, or elect subjects in their college curriculum which shall equip them with skills, as well as training for leadership in the future.

Others assisting in piling up the hours are Karen Miltz, Franklin High; Sue Rooser, Ladywood; Kathy Tripp, Franklin; Jacqueline Gombblewski, Ladywood; Janet Warner, Franklin High; Sandra West, Bentley High; Barbara Horvath, Ladywood; Laura Hunt, Franklin High; Ellen Chatman, Franklin High; Pamela DeWiese, Thurston High; Bonnie Newth, hopal, Bentley High; Pat Hamel, Our Lady of Mercy, Redford Township resident; Deana Caccia, Franklin High; Ellen Kaske, Franklin High; Jacqueline Joslin, Franklin High; Dolores Kaske, Franklin High.
