Bored With Life? Here's Adult Education Schedule

Registration for Adult Education classes offered by the Farmington Public Schools can be made by mail through Monday, Sept. 14, Director Richard T. Tyler said today.

(A convenient registration blank is published elsewhere on this page — it can be clipped and mailed.)

Registration also will take place on Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 16 and 17, at Farmington High, 32000 Shiawassee.

Tyler also released these details about the 1964-65 Adult Education program:

FEES

Fees are payable at the time of registration. The list fee is contingent upon having the required number of students enroll (10 to 14 persons, depending upon the class). The course fees are for instruction only, and unless specified, do not cover the cost of textbooks and/or other materials necessary to the course.

REFUNDS

No refunds will be given after the second class meeting unless the class is discontinued. A fee of $1.00 will be retained from those dropping the course prior to the second meeting.

Calhoun Scores In Farmington, As Does Templin

Farmington voters indicated strong support for County Clerk David Calhoun in the Oakland County primary.

Calhoun received 1,449 votes in Farmington Township while rival Daniel T. Berry was given 922.

In the Democratic race, Doris M. Beck received 546 and John D. Murphy 532 from Township voters.

City of Farmington scored it: Calhoun, 569; Berry, 294; Beck, 189; Murphy, 177.

Robert L. Templin was the popular choice among GOP voters for Prosecuting Attorney. In the Township: Templin, 1,072; William E. Lang, 815; Jerome K. Barry, 705. In the City: Templin, 429; Barry, 265; Lang, 240.

A Democrat contest saw Jerome Bronson lead Odin Johnson by 563 to 482 in the Township and by 181 to 146 in the City.

Honor Salesman

Mr. Jerry Walsh, of Livonia, has earned the high honor of qualifying for Woodmen Accident and Life Company's top sales production club. His outstanding production performance from August 1, 1962 to July 31, 1964 in the sale of life, health, accident, hospital and group insurance entitles him to membership in the President's Club. He was honored at the Company's convention held August 26-29 at Mackinac Island, Michigan.
