College District Communities Meet

Envision Cooperative Suburban Television Station

ising of Plymouth: and President Eric Bradner, John H.
Brinn and James H. Dotseth of Schoolcraft College.
Livonia Supt, Benton Yates spoke of the years of successful cooperation which northwestern

Alex Baskin, Livonia's direc-tor of instructional television, told of recent conferences with the Joint Council of Educa-tional Television in which plans for the expansion of the media were discussed. "Things are moving," Baskin

7 Livonia Students Get

Students Get

U-M Degrees

Seven Livonia students were among the 1,062 receiving degrees from the University of Michigan at the end of the summer session.
The necknown by number of The the student of the U-M colleges and schools is: Rackham School of Graduste Studies, 615; College of Literature, Science and the Arts, 140; School of Busliness Administration, 67; School of Music, 55; School of Engineering, 61; Sc

Marina Calzadillas, 9037
Hubbard, Master of Arts; Edwin T. Fuk, Master of Busluess Administration; John Haskell, 9833 Shadyside, Master of Arts; Beverly Jones, 16537 Follyanna Drive, Master of Arts; Stever
Robert Rice, 18795 Blue Skles
Drive, Master of Arts; Sister
Mary Strzaka, 38800 Schoolcraft, Master of Arts; Phèce
Woltz, 17262 Stamulich Blvd., Master of Arts.

the control of the co

200 Area Jaycees

Hear Talk By National Prexy More than 200 area Jaycees attended the District 6 meeting hosted by the Livonia Junior Chamber of Com-merce to hear an address by Stan Ladley, National President from Tulsa, Okla., who was a surprise visitor.

President from Tulsa, Okla,
The district session, which originally was just a gathering of members from the property
of members from the property
neglection of the property neglection of the property neglection of the property neglection

It was the first time in years hat a national president had ttended a district meeting and

Name Sandry Fund Head At Madonna

James Sandry, vice president and director of Edson Moore & Company, of Detroit, has been named director of financial de-velopment at Madonna College by College President Sister M. Raynelda.

the Livonia chapter was the lucky host when Ladley learned a previous engagement in Flint had been cancelled at the last had been cancelled at the last minute.

Special guests included: Merritt Martin, national vice results of the second seco members of the Windsor and Wallaceburg, Ontario chapters. Plymouth was represented by Wallaceburg, Ontario chapters. Plymouth was represented by 30 and was warded the Community Development, Individual Development and Blue Chip wards by Ladley with President Joseph Fletcher accepting. Ladley in his addressed stress of young men in their communities. He urged all Jayces to fulfill their responsibility of vice consciousness.

Eric Cormack, Livonia Jayce president, and, "It was the hope of the Livonia chapter of the community leaders, and," It was the hope of the Livonia chapter of the community leaders, and "It was the hope of the Livonia chapter of the community leaders, and "It was the hope of the Livonia as been attained by Ladley's challenge to members to reach their full potential as community leaders, all who heard Ladley were more aware of that men and the community leaders, all who heard Ladley were more aware of that cred which states, "service to the humanity is the best work of life."

New Liv COP

New Liv COP

selegment at Madonna Collegy
by College Fresident Sister M Raynelda.

With a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Michigan his experience in selling, Sandry will have the job of soliciting funds for the construction project under way on the campus.

The dormitors and distingtion of the start of the spring sensester.

The building project has a stimed cost of more than Smillion.

Thinshes AF Course
Airman Dale E. Randall, Schopenher I., Sandry Shore, Ire Rank Stores had first fished of the first phase of his Air Force basic military training at Lack-left first phase of his Air Force basic military training at Lack-left first phone of the Neighbor 10-basic military training at Lack-left first phone of the Neighbor 10-basic military training at Lack-left first phone of the Neighbor 10-basic military training at Lack-left first phone of the Neighbor 10-basic military training at Lack-left first phone of the Neighbor 10-basic military training at Lack-left first phone of the Neighbor 10-basic military training at Lack-left first phone of the Neighbor 10-basic military training at Lack-left first phone of the Neighbor 10-basic military training at Lack-left first phone of the Neighbor 10-basic military training at Lack-left first phone of the Neighbor 10-basic military training at Lack-left first phone of the Neighbor 10-basic military training at Lack-left first phone of the Neighbor 10-basic military training at Lack-left first phone of the Neighbor 10-basic military training at Lack-left first phone of the Neighbor 10-basic military training at Lack-left first phone of the Neighbor 10-basic military training at Lack-left first phone of the Neighbor 10-basic military training at Lack-left first phone of the Neighbor 10-basic military training at Lack-left first phone of the Neighbor 10-basic military training at Lack-left first phone of the Neighbor 10-basic military training at Lack-left first phone of the Neighbor 10-basic military training at Lack-left first phone of the Neighbor 1

THIS SHOWS how the car driven by William Sanders, Jr., 17, of 34908 Elmira, Livonia, was smashed after a head-on collision with the huge tractor-trailer on Wayne Road near Parkdale Thursday night. The youth died Monday morning from injuries suffered in the accident.

William R. Sanders, Jr., 17, of 34908 Elmira, Livonia, became the city's life traffic victim of 1964 when he died Monday morning at 9:05 from injuries received in a truck-car collision in a heavy downpour Thursday eventile.

William was critically injured when his morthbound car appeared to swerve out of traffic on Wayne Road near Parkfale to avoid hitting the car in front and crashed into a huge tractor-trailer going in the opposite direction, according to Livonia Police reports. The truck was driven by Edward Bechen, of Heights.

See Them All

Association

Marion B. Young, of Kresge's, is the first president of the recently organized Livonia Mall Merchant's Association.

The Livonia Mall Shopping Center, located at Seven Mile and Middlebelt Roads in Living, and is scheduled to open on Thursday, Oct. 22.

The Association met for the first time Monday and Young was the choice as the initial president. A native of Colerado, Young has been with Kresge's since 1929.

Southern Methodist University, where he became an associate professor of finance and statistics in 1955, and professor of finance and chairman of the department in 1958. The latter two positions he held until 1961 when he was granted a three-year leave of absence.

year leave of absence.
From 1955 to 1958 Dr. Zentz was consulting economist to the Lone Star Gas Company in Dallas, from 1958 to 1961 he was associate economist to the Fix National Bank in Dallas, and since 1961 he has been rescrib
director for the Investment Bankers Association of America in Washington, D.C.

 1965 Galaxie 500 4-Door Hard Top AS $2765°00

Bill Brown's

NOW!

KE 2-0900

Test Drive Total Performance '65

32222 PLYMOUTH ROAD

GA 1-7000

LIVONIA, MICHIGAN

JAYCEE LEADERS from District 6 greet National President Stan Ladley, of Tulsa, Okla, when he made a surprise visit to the district confab last week. Shown visiting with Ladley are (seated from left): Gordon Silvey of Romulus, District vice president; Ladley and Eric

Cormack, president of the Livonia Chap-ter; (standing, from left): Pat Duggan, Livonia; Joseph Fletcher, president of Plymouth chapter; William Nicol, Livo-nia vice president; and Don Treder, Rom-ulus Chapter president.