

Career Conference At Marygrove Draws Ladies

Woman's work, her status in the business and professional world, and her changing role in these worlds will be topics under discussion at the third annual Women's Career Conference at Marygrove College from 1 to 5 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 24.

The conference, planned by the Detroit Business Women's Club in cooperation with the College and the U.S. Department of Labor, will host high school seniors, counselors, placement officers and college and university women.

Natalie Hauck Wins Painting

Natalie Hauck was the lucky winner at the picture given away as a door prize at the successful Metropolitan Creative Art Guild Show last week at Wonderland Center.

Mrs. Hauck's name was drawn before the show closed on Saturday. She lives on Hazelton in Redford Township.

The painting was done in blues and blacks by Mabel Peterson—and was modern yet with a touch of pathos.

'Fashion in Sisterhood' by Temple Beth Am

The Beth Am Sisterhood is formulating plans for its first meeting which will be an introduction into "The World of the Modern Jewish Woman," at the Cohn Building, 31840 W. Seven Mile Road at Oshtus, Livonia, Monday, Oct. 12 at 8:35 p.m.

A new kind of fashion show depicting "Fashions in Sisterhood" will be the theme.

The Sisterhood is working to make this evening informative and fun. Members and friends are invited to attend.

Cards and Mah-Jong will follow.

Refreshments (goodies to you) will be served.

For further information please call Dorothy Fink, president, GR 6-2066 or Shirley Green, publicity chairman, GR 4-6929.

Janie Rene

Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. White of Yulet Avenue in Farmington announce the engagement of their daughter Janie Rene to Raymond Stewart Vanderhill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack R. Vanderhill of Greenmeadow, Farmington.

Pamela Anne

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Mundy, Sr., of Linda Avenue, Livonia, announce the engagement of their daughter Pamela Anne to Robert L. Camron, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Camron, Knolson, Livonia. The newly engaged couple are both graduates of Bentley High School. The Mundys are former residents of Redford Township on Berwyn Avenue. A May 21st wedding is being planned.

CORNELIA OTIS SKINNER

will open Northville Town Hall Series Thursday, Oct. 15 at the P & A Theatre in Northville. Mrs. Skinner says one of her chief problems is finding the appropriate title for her unique form of theatre, the one-woman show. She has used the words "discuss." However, she is shy of this since having been billed in England, (through the courtesy of a typewriter) as "Cornelia Otis Skinner, a well-known American disease" — and the same error again occurred in Boston. Actually, she is one of the loveliest and most patrician actresses on the American stage — a playwright, producer and actress all in one. Celebrity luncheon reservations at Meadowbrook Country Club are being taken by Mrs. W. Leonard Howard, FI 9-1642. Carol Durall of "The Living Show" will introduce Mrs. Skinner.

The Observer WOMEN

Kendallwood Farms News Card Party Proceeds For Top Speakers

The next event on the social calendar of the Women of Kendallwood Farms is the annual Telephone Bridge and Pinchle Party which will be held on Thursday evening, Oct. 22. As chairman of this affair, Mrs. John Lovett is busy formulating plans for a successful evening of cards and prizes. Among those members who will open their homes to their friends for this project are Mrs. Ralph Lennis, Mrs. Stanley Mallen, Mrs. Thomas Shearer, Mrs. Theodore Skones, Mrs. Fred Uhl, Mrs. Jack Crews, Mrs. Robert Miller, Mrs. Max Wayne, Mrs. Paul Robinson and Mrs. Richard Wrigglesworth.

The proceeds from the party will be used to supplement the funds for the year's program — an excellent series of speeches by outstanding personalities in varied fields such as art, drama, medicine and humanities. The featured speaker for the Oct. 27 meeting will be Dr. Margaret Sterne. Other speakers for the following months will be Dr. Richard Strath, John Parker Glick, Malcolm Dooley (brother of the late Dr. Tom Dooley) and Dr. Jack Bender.

John Stem To Wed N.G. Girl

Mrs. Andrew G. Pujda, Jr. of Massiac, New Jersey, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Patricia Ann of Bethesda, Maryland, to John M. Stem of Rockville, Maryland, son of Mr. Stem of 11315 Arden, Livonia.

The prospective bride received a B.S. degree from Catholic University of Washington, D.C. and her fiance is a graduate of Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Miss Pujda is a technician with Flow Laboratories, Rockville, where Mr. Stem is vice-president.

A November wedding in Washington, D.C. is planned.
