FRANKLIN

The Patriots will never stop winning it seems, especially when they scored their seventh consecutive victory at the North Farmington football game Saturday. This was Prauklin's championship game and they won it 20-0; once again Yonish and Antonazzo proved that they were on the field to win and not just play. November 7, Franklin will have a chance with one of its ughest rivals, Bentley, at 2 p.m.

toughest rivals, Bentley, at 2 p.m.
Friday, October 30, Franklin held its second voluntary pep assembly for two purposes. First, to present the chamiponship trophy which the cross-country team won October 27. The seven boys that were responsible for winning last Tuesday night were: Captain Tom Lee (who, incidentally, had only welve days to practice for the meet because of a previous injury). Dan Ryan, Gary Francis, Craig Roberts, Rick Hansen, Dave Thompson, and Mike Stock. The pep assembly was also held to encourage the studiest in come to he North Farmington game, Bentley visitions.

Gary Francis, Craig Roberts, Rick Hansen, David The 2008 Annual Milks Stock. The perp acceptibly was also held to encoince the students to come to the North Farmington game. Beatley visitors presented a banner, "Go Franklin Beat North Farmington", to the whole student body.

November 2-13, orders for the 1965 Almanack will be taken. Franklin's national prize winning yearbook sells for $3.75 and to Seniors, who may want their names engraved in gold, $2.35. This will be the only time books can be ordered and the yearbooks will be received, approximately, the first of June.

This coming Monday, Franklin will have a "Debate Days In Detroit" program where two college teams will debate the question. RESOLVED: The Federal Government should establish students will have a role in determining the winning team.

Three different styles of graduation announcements have been placed in the Senior showesse and the choosing of one style with be done in homercome soon. Orders for announcements. Tickets for "Bye, Bye Birdie", Franklin's first all-school musical, are going on sale. The play, which over 125 kids are working on, will be presented December 2. 3, and 4. The tickets which are available to everyone, cost 756 for students and $1.00 for adults. Franklin's Packet will be given two sets of tickets away in their upcoming issues.

IT'S THE LATE 1800's and the place is a tavern in the play by that name, "The Tavern," billed for the Thurston High School stage Nov. 5, 6, 7. This scene in the all-school play, first of the season, finds Sheriff Al Jones and his deputy keeping Tom Zereski covered.
