J. H. Griffin To Talk At Marygrove

"What is it like to experience discrimination based on skin color?"

"If a white man became a Negro in the Deep South, what adjustment would he have to make?"

These questions tormented John Howard Griffin, a white Texan, a specialist in race issues, and an internationally known novelist—until he determined to find the answers. The answers he found when he darkened his skin and lived among the Negro and white population of the Deep South are the materials of his best-seller "Black Like Me." These experiences are the subject of his lecture at Marygrove College, 624 Nichols Rd., at Wyoming Saturday, Nov. 21, at 8 p.m. Tickets are $1.50.

Reservations may be made by calling the box office, U-2-8009, or writing the Lecture Bureau, Marygrove College, Detroit, Mich., 48221.
