

Plymouth BPW Holds Successful Tea

Plymouth Business and Professional Women's Club members were hostesses at a Membership Tea on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 1 in the Jacob Room at Hillside.

Working women in business and the professions from Plymouth area were invited to be guests and to meet BPW members. Guests were informed about the program carried out by the Plymouth BPW and were invited into membership.

State Membership Chairman, Madeline Vick of Birmingham and State Expansion Chairman of Detroit were special guests.

Several new industries sent key women to represent them including Anchor Coupling, R.C.A., Plymouth Glass and Mirror, Alexander Hamilton Insurance, Kaiser-Jeep Corp., Associated Spring Corporation and Burroughs.

Presbyterian Church, Bell Telephone Company, Observer Newspaper, Plymouth Mail, National Bank of Detroit and the schools were represented.

Mary Wagnhuber, State World Affairs Chairman and a member of the Plymouth Club gave a brief history of BPW.

Ada Watson of the Plymouth Club, about 38 years, the civic activities and the objectives of the club.

President Mary Ellen Hofer welcomed guests and introduced honored guests.

Connie Heyder, Club Membership Chairman and her committee planned the affair. Participants and members served as hostesses. In addition, Mrs. Norma Cassidy charmed the group with her wit and humor.

The theme "Responsibility of Full Partnership for You and Youth" stresses the need for help from all working women. In order that more employed women may learn about Business and Professional Women Clubs of Plymouth the affair may be repeated.

DISCUSSING PLANS for the Plymouth Business and Professional Women's Club membership tea on Sunday, Nov. 1 are (from left) Connie Heyder, membership chairman; Vivian Lear and Ada Watson.

Hair Pieces "Must" For The Fashionable Lady

By HANA STRANG

The fabulous George Masters from California with the "masters" touch in hairstyling and makeup.

Do you know of him? Well, we at Hana's this past Sunday had the privilege to see this sought after stylist perform at the beauty show here in Detroit.

This slightly built, good looking man in his late twenties commands a minimum of $45 for simply putting the finishing touches to a shampoo and set.

Moreover, contrary to public opinion on tipping, this salon owner has received a Rolls Royce auto as one of many such extravagant tips. How could I help but admire such a successful hairdresser, who when relatively a novice hit the heights of this industry in such a short time.

I just had to see him, this awesome fellow who arranges the hairdos for all the beauties in the movie industry. To my surprise, he is neither a show-off nor much of a hairdresser (in my opinion).

Much like the late Gary Cooper, he says yes to yes and says or no to no. He says that he does not like talkative women either and makes a special point not to have these clients again.

Remember this ladies, if you decide to have Mr. Masters comb your hair.

He allegedly writes articles for leading magazines all over the country. Women of all ages purchase, read and regard them as authoritative.

Like a ritual, these ladies equipped with their articles and pictures, proceed to re-educate their hairdresser. On numerous occasions, a lady has come into my shop and said "George says that hair is now cut blunt, and I don't want any backcombing because George says it's out."

I'm appalled! But what are you going to do, "George says—" "Oh well—so I'll go and see for myself—and guess what—"

Katherine Jo Lundin

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Lundin of Detroit announce the engagement of their daughter, Katherine Jo Lundin, to Patrick Joseph Connor. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Connor of 14317 Yale Avenue, Livonia. Miss Lundin is a graduate of Mackenzie High School and the Virginia Farrell School of Cosmetology. The prospective bridegroom is a graduate of Mackenzie High School and has attended Michigan State University. No wedding date has been set.

Sister To Speak On Psychology At Rosary Meeting

The regular meeting of the Rosary Society of Our Lady of Good Counsel, Plymouth has been changed to Thursday, Nov. 5 for this one month.

Sister Odella I.H.M. of the Psychology Dept. of Marygrove College will speak on "The Facets of the Two Faces of Men and Women."

The topic illustrated by movies, will show our two selves and our defenses and the effect of our behavior on our selves. In view of the importance of the speaker and the provocative topic this meeting is open to the parish. Regular Rosary mention is admitted free but there will be a $1.00 charge for non-members or guests; if there is any woman desiring to become a member her dollar will be considered her dues as well as her admittance.

For centuries Paris has been the fashion leader in the world, but this time France came in third place and United States placed fourth. These are the people who should be considered as authorities in hair designing.

Anyway, the new trend has been established and all I can say is that these heads were beautiful, elegant, colorful and very feminine. Hair is very short at the nape, long at the crown with added hairpieces of all sorts. No more straight hair girls, but soft curls and waves all over the head.

News on color too, because it has really changed. Multi-color no less and if you please, Black with brown tips or streaks, red with blonde streaks, blonde on blonde—a color combination and you're in.

To top the hairdo and for added interest a braid is used to make even a more fabulous hairdo. Believe it or not it's a very easy style to look after and the fashionable lady will own a wardrobe of hairpieces that can be pinned on so easily.

I was impressed.

Children Unlimited Sponsor Bingo
