SOME EXCITING play in the political satire "The Girls in 509" is rehearsed by Redford Union High School students. The play will be performed at the R.U. Auditorium at Kinloch and Bennett in Redford Township Nov. 20 and 21 at 8 p.m. From left are: "Mimsy" played by Judy Light; "Professor Pusey," played by Russ Neal; "Aunt Hettie," played by Linda Crichton. Manfred Heuser, veteran actor-director, is in charge of the production.

Looking Around LIVONIA

A nine-month-old Collie-Brittany dog has been found. Described as well-behaved, friendly and a children's pet, the dog has a white collar, is red and is 24 to 30 inches long. Anyone who has lost the pet or who knows the whereabouts of the owner may call GA 1-3954.

Three Livonia officials are off on a junket to San Francisco, Calif., this week, attending the annual convention of the National Municipal League. They are Mayor Harvey Moolick, City Clerk Addison Bacon and Department of Public Works head Robert Shaw.

Harry Talcian, first assistant city attorney, has a new position. He's been appointed by the Michigan Municipal League's Board of Trustees and staff as a consultant on matters pertaining to government employee-relations.

Redford Poet Eulogizes Kennedy

PERPETUAL LIGHT
Dedicated to Our Late Beloved President
John F. Kennedy

This tragedy, that we sorrowfully bear,
Unites a nation's soul and mind and heart,
As we go forward, holding high the torch
To now, more diligently do our part.

He needed not position, wealth or fame,
No further need for plaudits of great glory,
Courageous War, during war's dark days,
We know it well . . . we all have read the story

His was a goal he felt he had to meet,
Inspired by God from His Eternal throne,
Hope is not buried in the silent earth
In God, our faith's increased . . . In Him alone.

"Almighty Power," governing all things,
Too human we, to know His mighty plan
For one who walked uprightly, showing ways
To make life better for his fellow man.

He now has gone to higher planes of life,
A nation mourns . . . but let it be said:
His spirit dwells among us and inspires,
For love, of selfless souls, is never dead.

Beyond the sunset, may he gently sleep,
The miles are spent . . . the promises
Are truly yours and mine, to keep,
From this young life, cut short by bullet's whine,
Forevermore, "PERPETUAL LIGHT" will shine.

REDFORD JAYCEES, in co-operation with Wayne County Health Department, again this year sponsored the public health screening clinic. Hundreds of Township residents were given a chest x-ray for detection of tuberculosis. The screening was done at three locations this year—police station, library, and Kroger's at the Seven-Grand Shopping Center. The clinic was considered a success by all who were involved.
