

REDFORD UNION PANTHER TRACKS

By Pam Ziemiak

On Friday, November 6, a pep assembly started to the tune of the Redford Union Fight Song. By the leadership of cheerleader, Pat Flowers, the students cheered vigorously and loudly. That evening Redford Union's football team was to battle Thurston, their township rival. This is an extremely important game, and everyone was inquisitive as to who the victors would be. The football coach, Mr. John Rogers, gave a short pep speech and wished that R.U. would be victorious.

That evening R.U.'s Panthers came face to face with their competitors. The first quarter consisted mostly of fumbles and pass interceptions. Neither team scored. In the second quarter, however, R.U.'s first touchdown was made by a spectacular run by Terry Shirkey, a junior. R.U. led the extra point. Unfortunately, Thurston came back to make a touchdown and their extra point. An accident occurred on the field in which a player from Thurston was injured. An ambulance was called to the scene, and the player was rushed to the hospital. To finish the game, R.U. again made a touchdown to make the final score 10-7.

Redford Union was awarded the Redford Township public school football trophy; and the lineman coach, Mr. Erik Sundek, was carried off the field on the players' shoulders.

Congratulations to the three members of R.U.'s football team who made the All-League team. They are Spud Kendrick and Mike Fritz, 1st All-League team, and Chuck Brock, 2nd All-League team.

The National Honor Society held a meeting on November 4 in which a new plan for selecting members was discussed. The officers of the club for this year are Greg Semonick, President; Jim Kirkpatrick, Vice-President; Tom Slemke, Treasurer, and Barb Sweet, Secretary. The members also discussed the possibility of sponsoring a dance sometime in the near future.

Clareville School Roundup

By MARGARET PAULSON

On November 19 and 20 the walls of the Junior High School will again rock with laughter. To the "Clareville" under the direction of Mrs. Sandreiss and Student director Beverly Paris, presents the three act comedy farce of "Charley's Aunt".

Jack Chesney is a nice sort of guy with the unusual property of not having a shadow. For a young man, somehow it always seems to find him.

His bosom buddy, Charley Wykeham, is a not-so-shy type of guy who is the proud possessor of a rich aunt.

The boys are madly in love with Kitty Verdum, Jack's girl; and Amy Spettigue, Charley's girl. When Charley's Aunt, Donna Lucia d'Alvadorez, decides to pay him a visit, the boys are in a bit of a predicament. They have the girls over, so they can propose. The invitation is sent and Charley's aunt is invited. If this something or other occurs and the aunt is unable to come, the boys forcibly turn to the aid of another girl. This is something or other, to play Charley's aunt.

The plot thickens when both Amy's Uncle Stephen Spettigue and Jack's father, Sir Thomas Wykeham, arrives with her, and her millions. The situation really takes a turn for the worse when the real Donna Lucia d'Alvadorez arrives with her, and she is Delahoye.

The cast includes the following people:

Don't miss "Charley's Aunt" on November 19 and 20 at 8 p.m. in the Junior High School Gym. Tickets sell for $1 for adults and 75 cents for students.

Open House was held at Clareville Senior High School on November 9. Teachers were prepared to discuss an individual parent concern in a private conference, discuss general departmental policies, and conduct a tour of the school facilities. Parents were urged to attend in order to become acquainted with the teachers, different subject areas and with the school building itself.

November 10 was Business Education Day at Clareville Junior High School. A group of business and industry gathered at Clareville for group discussions of different job fields that the students had available to young men and women of today. BULLETINS FROM BENTLEY

by Sue Dowell and Marcia Wilson

Last spring about 250 teachers from Bentley, Clareville, and Franklin visited business organizations around the city. On Nov. 10 these three schools had an Education-Business Day for interested men who make a living outside of teaching. The men were invited to see how the schools were preparing students for their lives as working men and women. To give the businessmen an idea of what Bentley students are doing, each visitor was given a copy of the student handbook, the Parmassus Magazine, a copy of the daily schedule, an issue of the Echo, and other information on Bentley and its layout.

Some of Bentley's renowned guests were Harvey Moskoff, Mayor of Livonia; Phil Tangway, Livonia Chamber of Commerce; Doris Malby, Merril-Bow Lane; R. E. Tomlinson, Montgomery Ward Co.; A. E. Johnson, the Kroger Co.; and Duane Mellinger, Bank of Livonia.

From the opening session at 11 a.m., where talks from the principal down to the Student Council President, Lewis Gentry, were given, to the conven-

Facts From FRANKLIN

The first appearance of ten hairy legs beneath five blue and white box-plated skirts was what the attention was focused on at Franklin's last pep assembly. The legs belong to five boys who have always stayed in the bleachers and entertained the Franklin football games with their special spirit and cheers. They are, Sophomore Dick Burley, Bill Reskorski and Drew Werner, and Juniors Doug Lee and Danny Scales. The masculine quintuplet who made up their own cheers, gave the varsity cheerleaders—Linda Elliot, Marilyn Gohmann, Sue Reich, Pat Kiselewski, Mimi Sarason, Sharon Sunal, and Mary Sue Williams—stiff competition with their first "official" cheering.

Students are coming to school armed with empty pop bottles and they will continue to do so until Thanksgiving or longer, depending upon the response. This is Franklin's "Pop Bottle Drive" sponsored by the Student Council to help raise money for the American Field Service program. There is competition between the three classes to see which class will bring in the most bottles and a grand prize will be awarded to the class that does.

A dressy dance will be sponsored by the Senior Class Council on November 20, from 8 to 11. The theme will be the "Foggy Fling" and records from the past five years will be played. This is an all-school dance and everyone is invited to attend.

Wednesday, November 11, was the first organizational meeting of the Franklin Ski Club. The officers for the new year are: President, Rod Edwards; Vice-President, Gary Van Poperla; Treasurer, Jamie Thompson; and Secretary, Penny Buchingham. The sponsor is Mr.

for students. The musical selections will be presented with the co-operation of the entire musical department of Franklin. Friday, the 13th, wasn't such an unlucky day for the Future Teachers' Club who held a bake sale. The money received will be used for some worthy project.

View Display

The Elks Lodge on Ann Arbor Road was the scene of a Christmas Preview, Nov. 12, when Mrs. Robert Spathe, guest speaker and arranger, presented an impressive display of center pieces for the holiday season.

These center pieces used pine cones and candles. Four table settings were also featured. The first was a fall setting done in beige and brown tones by Mrs. Queen Solander; the second a contemporary brunch by Mrs. Max Nicol in purple and turquoise; the third a formal table for all year in pale green and pink by Mrs. Dauderman, and last the traditional Christmas by Mrs. Spathe.
