

Kathleen Coffey Marries Hugh Crawford in Novi

Kathleen Sharon Coffey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Coffey, of Oakridge, Tenn., exchanged marriage vows and rings Sept. 28 with Hugh Crawford of Novi at a candle-light ceremony at the Novi Methodist Church.

The couple spoke their marriage vows before an altar covered with flower arrangements of pale pink gladiolus and chrysanthemums with a background of cathedral candles interspersed with stephanotis. The Rev. La Vere Webster officiated at the ceremony.

It was an all pink wedding. The bride's dress was designed and made entirely by hand by her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Samuel Outlaw of Nashville, Tenn. It was floor length, princess style blush pink satin. A front panel was covered with heirloom Alencon lace and embroidered with over ten thousand baby pearls. Her hair was held in place by a headpiece of blush pink satin designed in pill box fashion and trimmed in Alencon lace and seed pearls.

The bride's bouquet was of pale, pink throated cumbidium orchids surrounded by stephanotis. She also wore a pink cameo which had been worn by her maternal great-grandmother, a grandmother and mother on their wedding day.

Nancy Cotter, sworn in street length dress, fashioned after the bride's of lavender candy floss over taffeta, attended Miss Coffey. The bridesmaids were Barbara Cotter and Jeanette Cotter. They were dressed in contrasting shades of pink candy floss over taffeta.

Deborah Snyder was the flower girl.

All carried bouquets of large feathered mums.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crawford of Novi. His brother Jeffrey Crawford served as best man.

Seating the guests were Jack Crawford and Neil Davis.

Over three hundred guests attended the reception at the Novi Community Hall. Helping receive the guests were the bride's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coffey of Novi, and her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Samuel M. Outlaw of Nashville, Tenn.

The all pink motif had been carried out in the decorations of the hall. A large carnation horseshoe was mounted on the wall and the bride's table and buffet table were lace cloths over pink satin. Large topiary trees of pink blossoms were placed throughout. The four-tier wedding cake was also pale pink and was topped with a bride wearing an exact replica of Kathleen's dress.

Out of town guests were Mrs. T. Powers of Paris, Tenn., and Mrs. E. J. Berry and son from Clarksville, Tenn.

After their wedding trip, the bride and groom will reside at 28114 Greening in Farmington.
