Farmington Meadows

The Farmington Acres News has no more. As of this week, it was "The Meadows". Your writer probably have just as much trouble as you, adjusting to the new name. If you have any complaints, please take them to the Farmington Meadows Association, not me.

A hearty welcome to Dorothy and Ray Jeffers, new residents of 3245 Meadowlark. Ray is sales engineer for Republic Electric Corp. and was transferred here from Parma Heights, Ohio. The Jeffers have two children, Janice, 10½, and Jennifer, 4½. Though Dorothy and Ray have been in Farmington for a month, they have been busy with out-of-town guests and getting Janice organized in school and Girl Scouts.

JOYCE MARTING of Robinson was guest at "Welcome Neighbor, Colde-Klatch," at the home of Betty Willard, last Friday. Some of Joyce's neighbors, attending, were Nana and Rizzo, Ruth Vandan Heuvel, Leel Douglas, Donna Bush, Mickey Jaske, Joan Bogoske, Sharon Fitzpatrick and Marge Cook.

Joanne Wischmeyer went into Ford Hospital, on Sept. 30, for her annual check-up. She had heart surgery two years ago and the operation is just "routine stuff," for Joanne.

Mrs. Rex Hobbs is home convalescing after surgery last Saturday. She said she is feeling fine.

Two-year-old Anne Marie Tommy.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY to Joyce Marting on October 3; Nellie Bowers, on the 5th; and Sheila Stock, on the 6th. Belated wishes to Dolores Springmeier and visiting cousins, Mrs. Marting, on Laurelswood. Anniversary to Nancy and Bill Crozier of Robinson, celebrating their 9th on October 1.

Sheryl Marting spent several weeks with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Marting, in Iowa. When Sheryl returned by train, she brought her grandmother back with her. Mrs. Marting had a pleasant two weeks, visiting her son and his family and also becoming acquainted with Farmington.

Visiting the Rittlerings of Meadowlark are Mr. Rittlering's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Werner Rittlering of Byron, Nebraska. Also visiting, just for the day, were brothers, Rev. and Mrs. Norman Rittlering of Riverside, Michigan, Rev. and Mrs. Marvin Rittlering from Toledo, Ohio, and their three children.

GLENN AND MARGE Stock had word from the Walker's that they have a lovely home to move into, soon as it is re-decorated. Their furniture has not arrived as yet but they are expecting it at any time now. The twins were attending the Air Force school and the girls are going to a convent school.

What young teenage girl is going around on "Cloud Nine"? None other than Julie Wischmeyer who was just selected cheerleader for Farmington Junior High School.

Another teenager to make the news is Gary Smith, 11th grader at Farmington Senior High. Gary bowled a first league game of 245 and had a three game series of 628. Gary's dad, Bob Smith of Laurelwood, is still popping his buttons over Gary's bowling honors of 1st and 2nd place in the 1964-65 spring. At that time Gary walked off with Hi-Series, Hi-Game and Hi-Average.

FLANDER'S Bowling League officially began activities Wednesday, Sept. 30. There are eight, three-member teams and last week they bowled for average. Hi-game was 221, bowled by Marjory Gray. Hi-Average, Joan Dambas, 147. The 1st team secretary is Wilma Almeier and she can be reached at GH-4-8906.

Farmington Meadows Mixed League got off to a real swing last week. Women's Hi-game was bowled by Marie Rohlf, 152. Marie also bowled Hi-Series, 489. Men's Hi-game was bowled by Bruce Bridges, 222, bowled by Bruce Bridges, 222, bowled by Shelley Greenbeck. Hi-Team Series, first place, Team 12, with a 1790. Second place, Team 13, with a 1736. The "All-stars" Team 3, took third with a 1633.

A newly organized Bridge Club met Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. Janowski on Laurelswood. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. "Ray" Kelsch and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith and Mr. and Mrs. W. Taylor. A trophy reading "World's Greatest Card Player" went to
