Rocket Varsity Crushed 38-0 By Dearborn

The Farmington Junior Football League Rocket Varsity faced the Detroit (excuse me, we mean the Dearborn Lions) and were defeated 38-0 last Saturday. For the first 11 minutes, it did indeed appear as if it was the Detroit Lions. Using their overwhelming size to great advantage, Dearborn rolled up touchdowns the first two times they had the ball, while stopping Farmington's offense cold.

After the four-minute mark of the first period, the game began to be played on more even terms. Even though the Lions out-scored the Rockets 25-0 the rest of the way, the gallant but undersized and undermanned Rocket defense stiffened. Nolan, McClean and Cleveland supplied the starch for the Farmington defenders.

In the first period, as Dearborn seemed on their way to their third touchdown, in as many series of plays, Nolan of the Rockets broke through, batted the passer's arm back, and recovered the subsequent fumble.

McLEAN STOPPED another sure Lion score in the second period by intercepting a pass in the end zone. Nolan, McLean, and Cleveland (playing the finest game in his Rocket career) were making great tackles throughout.

The Lions even showed they were capable of kicking for the extra points. After several unsuccessful attempts, the Dearborn kicker split the uprights in the third period.

The fourth period may have seen the birth of a new Rocket Star. Collings was able to break clear for 2 runs of 40 yards each and several shorter ones. He also exhibited he could pass with a fine completion to Ockerman.

Next game is a big one at Southfield. Playing under the lights for the first time this season, the Rockets could use all the support they could muster. Hope to see you all there Saturday night.

STRIKES and SPARES

BEL-AIRE LANES

On the Guys & Dolls League, Earl Bowes pounded out a 730 series on games of 285, 206 and 239. This was the third 700 series in a week's time. Earl missed his 300 mark after 10 in a row. This gives him 100 pins over averages plaque and a pin and 700 patch. OK for a night's bowling.

In the Briar Hill Men's League they say 13 is unlucky. Chuck Adams and Fritz Worthington and Bob MacLeod will tell you that they won identical jackpots on the same magic number 213. Carl DeCamillo had a 646 series and Guido Tenaglia was right behind him with 645. Emil Grohman, 257.

WILLIS SINCLAIR had a 250 game in the Sr. House and Dick Kassel 657. In the Our Lady of Sorrows League, Jack Brown had 653 with a 243 and 221. John Smar a 244. There were 13 600-Series with 46 200-games in the Sr. House League with Dennis DuBois leading the way with a 663 series on 208, 202 and 253. Les Giles had 662 with 241, 220 and 201, and D. Walker had 659 on a 245 and 225. Westwood Manor Al Kahonen High Series 651 on 253 and 233. Bob Kraft had a 234 game.

Ladies Hi Scores are up too. Jackie Dix had a 563 series with a 201 game in the Bel-Aire Woman's League. Helen Rowe in the Thurs Mixed Couples hit 198 with a 528 series.

JENNIE NIEMIEC had a 569 in the Suburbanites League with a nice 231 game. Bertha Simonsen had a 587 series with 211 and 201.

The Coca-Cola Students are pounding them too. Rick Karbel had a 610 series and Rick Gunderlock 225. Sue Roach with an 88 average had a 154 game. So the alleys are still hot around here. Pit Lite Doubles will be starting on Nov. 14. So make your reservations early because their was always a full house and many disappointed bowlers.

Canoe Trip Turns Out To Be More Portage Than Paddling

If you don't believe the water level has gone down, ask some of the boys and dads of Troop 162—Shiawassee School!

A few weekends ago, 26 of them started out at 3 a.m. Saturday — most of them, young and old alike, with their eyes half-closed—for a 45-mile canoe trip. The pangs of hunger overtook them about 5 a.m., so all stopped at a restaurant and had a good hot breakfast.

The starting point — 45 miles above Omer on the Rifle River — was reached, gear transferred from cars to canoes and all took off. Thirteen canoes meandered downstream in the rain past fallen trees and curious cows (wouldn't you be curious if you saw canoes being pushed or pulled by people walking in water instead of being paddled as is the usual custom?)! The rocks were far from submerged because of shallowness, so the only way to move was get out and heave-ho.

Lunch was cooked over an open fire with much difficulty as it was still raining, but soon everyone was on their way again. As occasionally happens, 2 canoes overturned and the occupants got wetter than ever. This only added to the fun; but by the time night arrived and camp was pitched, most were miserably wet and cold. Also a little uneasiness prevailed because after an hour one adult and one boy were still unaccounted for. Finally on one scanning mission, lo! down the middle of the river—one tired man with a rope over his shoulder pulling a canoe with one wet, cold boy in it.

After all the rain, dreariness, and delay because of shallow water, the final touch came when the Ranger came around and was not going to allow them to stay the night because the fee hadn't been paid. This was supposed to have been taken care of by the canoe man; but come to find out (and just in time too) the boys had beaten him to the campsite in their canoes before he had had a chance to get there in his car and make their arrangements for them. This really perked spirits up!

After a good night's sleep, everyone was up early and continued on downstream to the landing point where the soggy gear was again transferred to the cars and everyone headed for home—wet, dirty and tired but happy too with the fun they'd had together and no doubt looking forward to another one in the not-too-distant future.

Those participating were Scouts Bill Hartwell, Tom Hoffman, Frank Poblenz, Paul Conner, Paul Ruelle, Paul Rickey, David Estep, Steve Lubinski, Craig Unger, Randy Fox, Jack McElroy, Brad Perkins and Brad Harper along with Scoutmaster Tom Blattert, Assistant Scoutmaster Mike Guilmette, and Dads Hartwell, Hoffman, Poblenz, Conner, Ruelle, Estep, Lubinski, Fox, Rickey, McElroy and Perkins.

Rocket JV Team Bows to Lions

The Farmington Junior Football League Junior Varsity lost a hard-fought battle to the Dearborn Lions, 7 to 0, last Saturday.

The old saying is "if the breaks go against you it hurts deeply" and so was the case in the gridiron battle between the Farmington Rocket's J.V. and the Dearborn Lions.

The break came as a result of a fumble in the first few minutes of play in which the ball bounced in the opening arms of a Dearborn player who scampered 30 yards for the only touchdown of the day. The extra point was good and the Rocket J.V. found themselves behind 7 to 0.

ALL DAY LONG the Farmington J.V. knocked on the Dearborn Lion's goal line, advancing as far as the 28, 22, 19 and the 11 yard line only to miss a first down by a yard or to have a pass deflected at the last moment.

It sure was a frustrating afternoon for Coach Jack Haller who tried every trick in the bag to score but it just wasn't to be. Also the Dearborn Lion's coaches were doing a great deal of pacing up and down the sidelines on the other side of the field.

MIKE GOW, Craig Dhue and Jim Harte of the Rockets did some fine running and the defense played its usual steady game but no matter what happened the score at the end of the game was Dearborn Lions 7 and Farmington 0.

Are you looking at pennies...

and missing out on the dollars you can save with an electric dryer?

Perhaps an electric dryer does cost a couple of pennies more per load to operate than a gas dryer. But with an electric dryer you come out dollars ahead in the long run. Here's why:

Model for model, an electric dryer costs from $20 to $40 less than a gas dryer.

And you save more if you buy now because this low price includes installation.

You'll also save in the long run because an electric dryer costs you nothing for electrical parts (repair or replacement) or labor. Edison will come to your home, make repairs and leave without leaving you a bill. Based on manufacturers' repair policy premiums, this no-charge Edison service can save you up to $200 in 10 years' time.

It doesn't matter where you buy your electric dryer; the Edison no-charge service still applies.

Add it up and you'll see that electric dryers actually cost less to own.
