Miss Dorothy Luella Nelson Is Bride of Local Stylist

Miss Dorothy Luella Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Nelson, 22340 Beck Road, Walled Lake, became the bride of Philip P. Peters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percival Peters, 15054 Kentfield, Detroit, in a candlelight ceremony at the Walled Lake Methodist Church on Saturday, November 7.

The bride's floor-length gown of silk-faced peau de chamois with re-embroidered lace and sequins, featured a scoop neckline with a bell-shaped skirt and fingertip sleeves. A pleated chapel train and single-shoulder pearl crown, accented with raised tulle, distinguished her hair. She carried a single white orchid.

MRS. JAMES S. LATIMER, matron of honor, wore a royal blue beaded gown featuring a scoop neckline and bell-shaped skirt. Her headpiece was festooned with a rose with blue petals matching her bouquet of yellow mums.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Lawrence Garling, Mrs. George C. Groat and Miss Sharon Rocheska. Their gowns, fashioned after that of the matron of honor, were of gold brocade. Their headpieces were roses with gold petals and they carried crescent bouquets of cinnamon mums.

Sandra Raymond, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl; and Edward Richter, cousin of the bridegroom, served as ring bearer.

GEORGE C. GROAT served as best man; and groomsmen were Charles Nelson, Jr. and David Ge. Ushers were Lawrence Garling and John Ryan.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother wore a two-piece beige and coffee-colored affair; and wore a corsage of pink roses.

The bridegroom's mother wore a Lucerne blue tulle tuxedo with matching coat and accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

The Reverend Ellis A. Hart officiated at the double ring ceremony at the altar which was decorated with candelabras, white gladioli, and white mums.

A vocal selection, "I'll Walk With God," "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer," were sung by Michael Anderson accompanied by Mrs. Robert Thibodeau.

A RECEPTION was held at Lincoln Brotherhood Hall in Wixom. The hall was decorated in the wedding colors, white, blue and gold. Mrs. Ezma Sweet, an aunt of the bride, presided at the buffet.

The bride, a 1959 graduate of Walled Lake Senior High School, has been employed at Ex-Cello Corporation.

The bridegroom, a 1959 graduate of Redford High School, is a stylist at Paris Room salon in Farmington.

The bride wore a pink wool suit with lighter pink accessories as the couple began a two-week wedding trip to Miami and the Bahamas Islands. The couple will make their home in Detroit.

Mayfair Bride Club Announces Winners
 The Mayfair Duplicate Bridge Club of 3330 Middlebelt Rd. held a twelve-table Mitchell movement game on Friday night, November 6. There were winners on the North-South side and four East-West.

Girl Scouts of Troop 175 Plan Uniform Sale
 Southern Oakland Girl Scouts have chosen Barb Allen as one of their delegates for the 1963 National Roundup at Farragut National Management Area near Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. Another one of the girls, Bonnie Brees, has been chosen as an alternate.

Six Senior Scouts who have finished the Program Aide Course given at the Pleasant Ridge Community Center are Barb Allen, Bonnie Brees, Judy Gleason, Gail Little, Karen Lovett and Pam Slade. These Scouts are working with a troop of girls at the Sara Fisher Home on Thursdays.

A Girl Scout Uniform sale will be held Saturday, November 14, from 10 o'clock until 12 at St. Fabians. Uniforms should be taken to Mrs. Carl Siarto, 7433 Heather Lane, Eagle School; Mrs. George Woodley, 2817 Greenwood; Woodley; or Mrs. Arthur Maklan, 31810 Cornet, Kenbrook School. An envelope with name, address, phone, price and size should be pinned to each uniform. If anyone is unable to reach these people, uniforms may be brought to St. Fabians on Saturday morning.

An appeal is being made for those uniforms not sold to be distributed to the mentally retarded children of the State Hospital for the Mentally III.

Millereek Questers Hold Meeting Nov. 9
 The Millereek Questers, which is a national organization for the purpose of antique study and preservation of historical sites, had a meeting Monday, November 9, at the home of Mrs. George Carter, 16741 Ashton Road.

Guest speaker was Diane Wood, "Chairlady." Mrs. Wood is a member of the Birmingham chapter of Questers. She spoke on the caning and rushing of chair seats.

The Millereek chapter is a Farmington and Livonia area club meeting in the evenings so that mothers of pre-school children and women who work are able to participate.

The Questers make many field trips to area antique shops and to view private collections. Those interested in joining or wishing additional information may call Mrs. Preston Meisler (Greenleaf 4-6099).

The real importance of the hair-shaping and the cut is that style and fashion can be changed and set in many variations without this basic "French Hair Cut."

Hair styles following the new Paris trend will be discussed in next week's column.

Different and shocking is the complete change and shaping of the "Hair Cut."
