FARMINGTON OAKS

MARIE RUYLE 474-6272

The subdivision continues to grow, as folks move into their new homes from far and near. This week we have two new arrivals in the Oaks, moving in just in time to spend the holidays in the new house.

Don and Sandy Schurr, and their sons, Don, 7, and Peter, 5, made a very short move from Meadowlark Street in Farmington Meadows to Chestnut Lane.

LAWRENCE AND Shirley Hollyer lived in Redford Township before moving to Chestnut Lane with their children Michael, 11, Linda, 5, Larry, who is almost 3, and Laura, 2 years old. Don works for R. V. Seaman Co. and Lawrence works at Stanley-Carter Co.

The Farmington Oaks dancing Class (?), got together and attended a dance at Roma Hall given by St. Aiden's Men's Club last Friday evening. The Platkos, Ruples, Smiths, Clines, Brunettes, and Hills fox-trotted their way through the evening under the watchful eye of their instructor, Angelo Berardi. Dick and Rene Calligaris, who have assisted Angelo throughout the course, also attended. In addition to the dancing, the group was entertained by Father Dustin, the Banjo playing priest, and was fed a splendid midnight supper.

Our deepest sympathy goes to Ruth White, whose mother died recently.

KURT AND NANCY Jagenberg proudly announce the birth of a seven pound, seven ounce baby boy on November 5. Young Fred Werner Jagenberg and his mother are doing nicely.

Ruth Burns was in Detroit Memorial Hospital after a bout with double pneumonia. She is home now and on her way to recovery. Little Susan Kincaide has been out of school for three weeks with viral pneumonia.

AN EXTRA CANDLE on the birthday cake for John Mosley on the 14th, while J. F. Stoddard put two big candles on his cake on the 17th. Matt Kincaide was six years old on the 17th. Other birthday celebrants are Madeleine Procknow and three-year-old Raymond Persia on the 22nd, Woody Dunn on the 23rd, and Maureen Ciampa on the 30th.

Don and Agnes Stoddard celebrated their wedding anniversary on November 14th by going out to dinner and a movie. Al and Lee Bergin had an anniversary on the 23rd and Katy and Ed Bay celebrated theirs on November 21.

Betty Robertson is the envy of the neighborhood. She just returned from a ten-day vacation in Florida visiting her mother and mother-in-law.

Thanksgiving Program Set For Nov. 29

Thanksgiving is a time for acknowledging not only the harvest of the fields but also the best in American values and ideals and this will be the theme of the 10 a.m., Nov. 29, service at the Universalist-Unitarian Church of Farmington.

Under the direction of Mrs. Martin Glucksteln, the program will feature a children's choir, readings from great American literature, performances by some of the church school members and a harvest of old American songs.

Church members Clara Vincent, Hope Halstoll, Robert Nelson, Dr. Alden Shaw and Jerry Eddy will do the poems and readings, taken from the writings of Carl Sandburg, Walt Whitman, Archibald McLeish, Langston Hughes, Robert Frost, Kenneth Patton, Stephen Spender and Abraham Lincoln.

The junior high class also will do several selections.

The choir is directed by Mrs. Neil McCallum and includes children from the second through sixth grades. Their songs wil linclude "O, Beautiful My Country," "O, Pioneers," "Johnny Appleseed," "Sing a Harvestime," "Thanksgiving Prayer," and "This Land is Your Land."

Youngsters in the first grade will join in one of the songs and contribute a harvest Indian dance. Kindergarteners and nursery school children have made the apples for a tree to be used as scenery.

Before the regular service members and friends will be invited to participate in a song-fest of traditional American numbers led by the senior high class.

Plan Advent Services At N. Congregational

On Sunday morning, November 29, the first Sunday in Advent, at 10:30 a.m., a brief worship service will be held and the first candle will be lighted. Each Sunday thereafter, until Christmas, a special candle will be lighted to mark the Advent season.

Mrs. Frank C. Retz, Director of Christian Education, said that the services have been planned to make Christmas a event.
