Harris Expands Funeral Home, Adds 4 Chapels

Two of four new chapels are already in use in the west suburban Harris funeral home, 15451 Farmington Road at Five Mile Road, Livonia, in the extensive remodeling and rebuilding program which began in August, 1964. The work which will more than double the size of the family service area is expected to be completed in March.

AS PASSENGERS-BY have noticed, the appearance of the west front of the 90 foot wide structure is being beautified; the addition of a Colonial style entranceway, with columns and steps making an eye-catching break in the routine, was designed to add dignity and a touch of old-fashioned friendliness.

The four new chapels are being constructed through an interesting combination of use of existing space and a new building added at the rear of the present structure.

The two new chapels now completed (of the four being constructed) can be converted, when necessary, into one large chapel measuring 24' x 56'. Adjacent to the new chapel is a separate and spacious family room, with private entrance to assure complete privacy.

LIGHTING, SOUND, heating, air-conditioning and other controls for the chapels have been highly developed to provide comfortable and proper atmosphere for all visitors.

David Whitney, resident manager of the Harris Livonia funeral home, said: "We've planned the re-modeling so that it interferes as little as possible with our service to the families of this community. We expect all work... remodeling, rebuilding, redecorating and re-furnishing... to be completed in March."

THE FRANKLIN KNOLLS women's club will stage its annual Fashion Show Luncheon Thursday, April 1, at 12 noon in the Glen Oaks Golf and Country Club on 13 Mile Road in Farmington. Pictured above are (l. to r.) Mrs. James Loffer, Mrs. Harry Norton, Mrs. Peter Morello, Mrs. Everett Bolan, Mrs. Kenneth Curtis and Mrs. Raymond Gaines. Committee members absent from the picture were Mrs. Robert Blair, Mrs. Edward Hess, Mrs. Jack Baker, Mrs. Anton Borgmeyer, Mrs. Albert Pollin, Mrs. Al Sobel and Mrs. Marino Zapco. The theme of this year's Franklin Knolls Women's Club Fashion Show Luncheon will be "My Fair Lady."

ANNE M. PHILLIPS MA. 6-6335

Fred and Zella Missal left here Jan. 19 and drove to Palm Springs, Calif. via the Grand Canyon. Fred had two weeks to play golf on all the famous courses in that area. Although they had some cool weather while there, they also had 85 degree days. They did see one of the very bad wind and sand storms that came up in desert areas which knock house trailers over, send blast paint from cars, and pit windshields.

They took the world's largest passenger-carrying train up the longest continuous climb to the top of Mt. Jacinto - 8516 feet. They dined at the famous tent club, the Eravran, in Palm Desert which is about 16 miles from Palm Springs. From this beauty spot they drove to fabulous Las Vegas. They did just enough gambling to be able to say they have gambled there. They did take in four gorgeous dinner shows and three midnight shows which they enjoyed very much.

AFTER FOUR DAYS in Las Vegas they went to Scottsdale, Arizona. Here they dined at a most delightful club called Mountain Shadows. Next was Tucson. They then went to Las Vegas, New Mexico, where Zella has a cousin who is a professor of Education at the New Mexico State University, a cousin with whom she had not seen for a dozen years. They reached home Feb. 20, so they did not miss the big bloom.

FRIDAY, FEB. 19, Tommy Tyghem took a day from school Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Johnson, so the whole family, including Frederick, who is the son of Sophomore at Adrian College has been named to the Dean's List. This is an outstanding honor for any student, and Frederick was one of 11 students to receive the distinction. To be named to the Dean's List, one must have attained at least a 2.25 point hour ratio for the last semester's work. Adrian is on a 3.00 grading system.

Frederick, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Johnson, is majoring in Liberal Arts.

Take Names for Summer Sci. Scholarships

Recommendations by local science teachers for applicants in the 1955 Summer Science Scholarship Program must be received by the Michigan Cancer Foundation no later than March 19, it was revealed today by Mrs. Frank Strimbell, Public Education Chairman for the Foundation's Farmington Branch.

An initial supply of applications has been sent to science teachers in all Farmington high schools. March 5 was the deadline for additional application requests.

THE PROGRAM, which represents a total investment of approximately $22,000, involves nine-week science courses conducted in geographically convenient high schools throughout the four-county area served by the Michigan Cancer Foundation. Local teachers have been selected for each of those recommended by their science instructors to take advantage of the program.

ALL APPLICATIONS submitted by the teachers will be reviewed and selections of scholarship winners made by the Foundation's Medical and Scientific Committee.

Further information on the scholarship program may be obtained by calling the Farmington Branch Chairman, Mrs. Harry Hason, at GR. 4-8882.

Named to Dean's List At Adrian College
