Mrs. Findlay chose a blue silk shantung street length sheath dress with black accessories for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother

FAHC Slates Pancake Social

In its first public appeal for financial support, the Farmington Association for Handicapped Children, Inc. is sponsoring a Pancake Supper on Wednesday, March 21. Slated for Dancel Junior High on Twelve Mile Road, supper will be served from 5:30 to 8 p.m. Work on the handicapped children will also be on display.

"Funds received at the supper will be used for vocational rehabilitation and assistance to handicapped children," states Charles Kull, president of FAHC. "Oakland County has been a leader in the educational program for handicapped children, but tax dollars cannot do it all," he said.

The support of everyone in the Farmington area is needed. A complete meal, including dessert, will be provided.

LIVONIA FUNERAL HOME

15451 Farmington Road near Five Mile

On Friday, March 19, 1965 Livonia's oldest funeral home will be newly dedicated to the service of families in this part of Michigan.

THIS FORMAL DEDICATION was postponed until the completion of the extensive rebuilding program.

In order to meet the R. G. & G. R. Harris standards for excellence, the building has been greatly enlarged and almost entirely redesigned. A new wing has been added which more than doubles the space.

The added chapel is 56 feet long and 22 feet wide. One end opens into a spacious anteroom for family privacy. Special lighting, new sound systems and a new organ, finish this fourth R. G. & G. R. Harris Funeral Home and make it one of the finest installations in this area.

SERVICE PREFERRED The steady growth and continuously increasing selection of Harris funeral homes is the result of conscientious, detailed service to the families who come to us. In matters of funeral costs, respect for the wishes of the family, and simple, orderly procedures, Harris has been the choice of three and four generations in hundreds of families.

YOU ARE INVITED TO VISIT US THIS SATURDAY AND SUNDAY FROM NOON UNTIL 8 P. M.
