Congratulations to Yvonne and Bob Morrison of Inkster Rd. on the birth of their daughter, Patricia Grace, 7 lbs. 9 oz. on February 20 at Highland Park General Hospital. After the baby was born, and while still in the hospital, Yvonne came down with pneumonia. Diana, 12, and Bob, 7, impatiently waited an extra day to greet their new sister. Mother and baby's convalescence was delayed an extra day because of the snowstorm.

La's 10th month little Darlene Soderstrom, daughter of Dorothy and Don Soderstrom, of Onarga, won her battle with pneumonia.

Good luck to Peira Unger, and her Farmington High debating teammates when they compete in the Regional Tournament on Thursday, March 18, in Ann Arbor. Peira is the daughter of Helen Unger, of Onarga.

There have been many congratulations and good wishes for the new couple. Phil and Betty Hilliker enjoyed a visit with Phil's brother and family, Sheldon and Sherry Hilliker and children Louis and Kim from Easton, California. It was the first time in eight years that the two couples had seen each other. A joint birthday party was held while they were here for Kim who was 2 and for Dawn Abee who was 3 years old.

Another visitor celebrating a birthday while in our midst, is Mrs. G. W. Hack here to visit from South Aoxanna, Illinois to await the arrival of the stork at Barbara and Phil Stewart's in Arbor Drive.

ESTELLE ELTES was hostess at a nursery shower for Barbara recently. Sixteen friends and neighbors attended with prizes going to Ruth Barker, Pat Micallef, Betty Hilliker and Sharon Picmann.

Gathering for an evening of cards at Pat and Ron Hebert's were Barbara and Bob Houchens, Joyce and George Laskowski, Marge and Frank McKenna, Helen and Phil Kane and Nona and Tom Behrend.

Honey-mooners Barbara and Len Salsbery are home from three weeks at Pompano Beach, Florida. They spent a few days at Daytona Beach and in Knoxville, Tennessee, with relatives. She'll be after their return to Farmington, Barbara entered the hospital for a tonsillectomy and just returned home.

A L.S.O. VACATIONING in Florida were Paul and Marge Treganza and baby Diane. They spent two weeks at the Castaways in Miami Beach and attended several pool openings. Arriving home the weekend of the big snowstorm, the Treganzas had visions of shoveling their way to the door-but were unable to find their considerable neighbors had already cleared the drive for them.

Speaking of the storm, Westlake's first "storm baby" is Millie and Bill Babb because the parents of Laura Lee on February 26, after a long walk to Shawwassee and an even longer drive to Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Congratulations are also in order for Gene and Annette Marron on Glenmoor and their new baby, Scott Allen, born February 23, and for Mary and Ed Olszewski of Tuck Rd. on the birth of their fourth child, Mark Thomas.
