ANNE M. PHILLIPS

Clear and May Snover left here December 2 and drove to Tucson, Arizona. They made many trips about the state visiting Sabina and Madrina Canyons, going to Phoenix, and enjoying dog racing. They also drove to California where they visited friends in San Diego and Huntington Beach.
They returned to Wood Creek March 12.

Elna and Fred Syverson drove to Florida, leaving here March 1. They went first to Clear water where they visited Emma and Jack Coyle. They then drove down to Key West where they enjoyed a week of wonderful weather. Fred did some fishing and they both did a lot of sunning.

FRANK and IDA Jensen drove a friend's car to Florida, stayed a couple of days in West Palm Beach and also at Bogotan Beach. They then flew from Miami to the Virgin Islands. They stopped at St.
John and at St. Croix briefly and for several days at St.
Thomas. As these islands were once owned by Denmark they are of particular interest to them. They flew directly back from St. Thomas to Detroit.

Wilfred and Mary McGuire had five weeks in Florida.
They drove to Fort Lauderdale where they lived on their houseboat until they sold it.
They got back here on February 20, in time for the big snowstorm.

PAUL and I finally got a flight to Florida late the night of the 17th — some afternoon

The Franklin Garden Club will meet tonight at 8 p.m. at the home of Ellen Ambrose, 28340 Wellington. Mrs. Russell Coch will be our speaker and her topic is "Dried Flowers and Arrangements."

YERN and GRACE Fisher went to Tryon, N. Carolina for the Steeple races held on the 20th. Marj and Wally took a week off from school to go with them. Vernon rode in the hunt while there. In spite of four days of rain they had a fine time as several of their friends at the Waterloo Hunt Club were also there. They got back Sunday evening.
