

PTA Meeting Set At Clarenceville

Bring your "homework" on the three articles which your children brought home to the PTA meeting on Tuesday, April 27, at the Clarenceville High School cafeteria. After a dramatization of the three articles, the high school home economics department will present a style show.

Old Homestead

By SHIRLEY BERGER
GR 8-3308

The Old Homestead Subdivision is made up of an unusual group of people. Not only are they concerned about the welfare and interests of their residents—but also their concern goes beyond to the greater community.

An example of their concern was the action taken at a recent Subdivision meeting. They voted to send $500—Civic Membership—to the YMCA at a stake in the future and to aid its continued development.

THIS WOULD SEEM to be enough—but it wasn't. Practically every family in Old Homestead now carries a YMCA Family Membership for participation and support. They are active in many phases of the YMCA program.

Individual residents are giving of their time and resources also. Last summer, the Ted Knights and the Bill Morgans loaned their pools for swimming instruction. The Russ Nankervis is giving leadership at many points, with Russ being an active member of the YMCA Board.

The Y Indian Guide Tribes—called the Creeks—have helped refurbish a room at the Y House and have been most helpful in so many ways. This thoughtful group of people consist of Al and Grace Shobe, Jack and Phil and Paul Hukkala, Dick and Pat Latimer, Bob and Tom Plazibat, Bob and Bobbie Bohme, Richard and Rick Bouffard, and Russ and Craig Nankervis.

JOHN PHENEY, president of the Old Homestead Gang, has a wonderful group of people to work with. George Bernard Shaw said, "We have no more right to consume happily than to produce it."

ness without producing it than to consume wealth without producing it."

These people are producing happiness for themselves—and others. Our community and our YMCA are indebted to them.

Slate "KornBall" at Duncel Jr. High

Wooddale PTA invites the families in the community to join them for an evening of square dancing on Saturday, May 8.

The "Korn Ball" will be held at Duncel Junior High gymnasium from 7-8:30 p.m. Parents and their children will do to the calls of Jim Schallheis.

Tickets may be obtained at the door or by calling Mrs. Goetzke, GR. 4-8594. Plan now to attend.
