Gerry Hyde of the Kenbrook P.T.A. Bowling League bowled 103 pins over-average and won the jackpot. The league reminds all bowlers as well as substitutes that there is a meeting on May 27 at 9:30 a.m.

Janice Pierce, North Farmington High student, reports that May 1 will be a "Car Wash Work Day" which will take place on the high school premises from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The proceeds from this fundraising project will be donated to the North Farmington Scholarship Fund.

The annual card party given by the Women of the Kendallwood Farms will be held on April 27, 8 p.m. at Our Lady of Sorrows. Finger sandwiches as well as petit forces will be served. There will be prizes galore. The proceeds will help buy orthopedic equipment for two patients of the Plymouth State Training Home and School. Tickets may be obtained from Elaine Dempster. Call 476-3327.

The North Farmington T-Ball League is off to a good start. Donald R. McLooney is president and Dick Angelo, vice-president. Over 300 boys will participate in T-Ball this season. Little League candy sale will take place on Saturday, May 1. There will be ten National League teams and six American League teams. A meeting was held to determine schedule for the coming baseball season.

Artists Club Plans Exhibit

The Farmington Artists Club is busily engaged in making the final plans and arrangements for their first Art Exhibit and Sale.

The Exhibit, slated for April 25, from 12 noon to 7 p.m. at the Hobby Shop, 23042 Farmington Rd., Farmington, will consist of oils and watercolors. There will be a variety of paintings — landscapes, still-life, and contemporary paintings of subjects.

Admission is free and everyone is invited.

Dick and Pat McGrath flew to Phoenix, Arizona, on May 8 of this month, and from there went to Sun City where Pat's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Tishels, spend their winters. Pat's two brothers with their wives, and the two children of her younger brother, also were there. This was an early celebration of their parents' golden wedding anniversary. They are leaving April 24 on a trip to China, Japan, and Hawaii. They actually are due to arrive in Hawaii June 9 and should be there on their anniversary date, June 10. Dick and Pat got home from this family gathering in Hawaii April 12. Tuesday, the 13th, they were surprised to have young Dick arrive home. He had been working in Chicago but is at home for an indefinite period until other plans crystallize.

Easter Sunday all 24 McGraths had brunch together at Devon Gables following Easter church service.

BILL AND HELEN Weightman were thrilled when daughter, Judy, with her husband, Jerry Forman, arrived at their house last Monday, back from two years in Hawaii. They drove from California to visit Paul King, his wife, Sandy, and small son Christopher Michael. Paul is now in the Navy and stationed at San Diego. They then drove back to Wood Creek where they spent a few days while they were doing some painting in their home in Livonia. They moved into it Good Friday.

Maury Tyghem's uncle, Brother Lucien, has been called back to Belgium. He has been visiting here and with other relatives nearby ever since he escaped from Africa.

Phillip and Wanda Haynes of Beech Hill are greatly elated at the news that their son, Jack, has been elected to the Canadian chapter of the Junior Honor Society. It is the highest honor a high school student can earn and is awarded in recognition of scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Jack is a senior at the University of Detroit High School and will enter the U. of Michigan in September.

Camperama Program Set

A "Camperama" will be sponsored by the Farmington Area YMCA on Friday, April 30, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the Longacre Elementary School. The purpose of the Camperama will be to introduce Farmington families to the various types of YMCA camp programs being offered this summer.

Families will have an opportunity to meet and talk with Jim Traylor, Director of the YMCA Camp Ohiyssa, which is located in Holly, Michigan. Camp Ohiyssa serves boys and girls, ages 9 through 17 and also has an excellent family camp program for the entire family to go to camp together. ANOTHER resident camp program will be presented by Chet McLemore, Director of Camp Nissokone, located in Oscoda, Michigan. Camp Nissokone which is also owned and operated by the Detroit YMCA serves families as well as boys 8 through 17 years old.

In addition to resident camping, Farmington families will have the opportunity to meet Don O'to, director of the Farmington Area YMCA Day Camp program. The Day Camp program is for boys and girls 6 through 12 years of age and operates four days during the week from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

A puppet show will add some extra entertainment for the entire family. Plan now to attend! There is no cost or obligation for those families who attend the Camperama — just attend the Camperama — more about "v" camping, Longacre School is located at 34850 Arundel. For more information call the Farmington Area YMCA at 476-3322.

on April 14 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac to Mary Jo (Fisher) and Ed Andrews. Mary Jo and Heather Joan were taken to their home in Novi Monday.

The former Weinstein home purchased by Richard and Marie France. They have a 7th grade daughter, Kimberly. They are moving here from Connecticut and are now living with Marie's sister, Mrs. Elmer Staley, nearby in Farmington while the house is being redecorated.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lessway of Farmington announce the engagement of their daughter, Joanne Elizabeth, to Mr. Claude E. Paquette, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Paquette of Southfield. Joanne is employed at Farmington X-Ray Clinic as a registered X-Ray Technician. Her fiancé is office manager at Avis Rent a Car. They plan to wed on May 22.

THE NEW home at the corner of Millbrook and Westmont Court, is now occupied by the Harvath family. Samuel G. and Rosella have two children, Sheree Elita and John Dana.

The Franklin Garden Club will meet Thursday night, May 6, at 8 p.m. at our house at 28851 Millbrook. Mr. Joe Poleo will talk on Rock Gardening.

Next week is clean up week. Everything should be ready and out by Saturday, May 1, for pick-up day. Eddie Carden has trucks lined up but he does need lots of workers for the trucks. Please call him at MA. 6-1448 and offer your services. Pick-up will start at 9 a.m. The burning will be at the usual place on Village Lane starting at 4:30 p.m.
