

OLD HOMESTEAD

By SHIRLEY BERGER GR 6-3308

According to all reports, Jan Oliver gave a really stellar performance as Helen Keller in "The Miracle Worker" at North Farmington High School last week. Dale Adcock was busy behind the scenes as a member of the stage crew. The cast gave the play again last Tuesday for the residents of Carmel Hall. Members of the mixed team bowling league which has been meeting semi-weekly all winter long on Sunday evenings wound up their season with a festive dinner-dance. First place honors went to the Maple Knuckers, Buhs and Al Shobe, Ann and Dick Frankini. Betty Weldon was high lady with a 214 game, and Al Riebe captured the masculine top score with his 244. Individual high series went to Charlie Oddo with a 624; his wife Ann tied with Mae Haler at 523.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elrschete of 33737 Macomb Avenue in Farmington wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Carolyn Sue, to Mr. Kenneth H. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Williams of Havelock, Ontario. The bride-elect is a 1961 graduate of Farmington High School and is presently employed by the Anger Manufacturing Company of Northville. Her fiancé is employed by General Motors Corporation of Canada in Oshawa, Ontario. A September 18 wedding date has been set.

DORIS WEIMAN was the surprised honor guest at a farewell luncheon given for her by Irene Barth and Therese Gibbs. Doris will be moving into the city of Farmington, and she and her family will be greatly missed by their Old Homestead friends.

Craig Bohme's family observed his fourteenth birthday with him, and the Orvisses found it hard to believe that Jim was celebrating his seventeenth last week.

David Karl's grandparents came to see him blow out his three candles. His father, Louis, expects to be in the upper peninsula for the opening of trout season next week.

BRENDA SIMMONS spent part of her birthday on foreign soil; the family traveled to a Windsor restaurant for dinner. Shirley Simmons announces that this month's square dance has been canceled.

Local Bluebirds sponsored a "Mom's Night Out" and invited their moms to a pancake house for supper. Joyce Ross attended with daughter Mary Jo, Betty Weldon with Barbara, Yvonne Craig with Joann, Irene Barth with Chris, and Catherine Stevens with Ann. A tour of the telephone company in Plymouth was also on their agenda during Easter vacation as the rank of Woodgatherer requires a visit to a communications center.

Grace School Sets Annual Paper Drive

The William Grace School student council has set Friday, April 30, for its annual one-day paper drive.

John Holappa, Jeff Huebler and Karen Nolan, student council officers, will head the drive. Committees of fifth and sixth graders will be assigned to help load bundles of waste paper on the truck, which will be parked in the school parking lot.

The paper drive serves as an annual reminder that it's spring clean up time. The students at William Grace coordinate the paper drive with a general school clean-up campaign.

Parents are asked to assist their children in tying the papers in secure and easy-to-handle bundles with a heavy twine or cord.

Papers should be delivered to the trailer at William Grace between 8 and 8:30 a.m., 11 and 12 noon, 2:30 and 3:30 p.m. of Friday, April 30.

In case of bad weather the drive will be delayed one week.
