Area United Church Women Plan May Fellowship Day

United Church Women of Farmington will participate in the nationwide observance of May Fellowship Day on Friday, May 7, at the First Methodist Church of Farmington at 10 a.m. The morning session will be considered as a workshop and will be devoted to a showing of the film "The Captive," which is a documentary on a victim of Appalachia, and will be followed with discussion groups. This session will end with lunch at 12 noon. The afternoon program starts at 1 o'clock and will be devoted to the theme, "Poverty, Plenty, What Do the Lord Require." Reverend Lewis Redmond will address the group during the afternoon.

Masons Plan 100th Birthday Celebration

Plans are being finalized for the forthcoming 100th birthday celebration of Farmington Masonic Lodge No. 151 slated for May 22, at the First Methodist Church of Farmington, P.M., Centennial Chairman. HIGHLIGHTING the festivities will be a dinner followed by an evening of entertainment. The Master of Ceremonies will be Dick Kefgen. The Chanters from Moslem Temple will assist in the program with their fine choral arrangements. The evening will be climaxed with dancing to the James Pritchett Orchestra. The Most Worshipful Grand Master of Masons in Michigan, Brother C. Fuller Dorr, and most of the Grand Lodge Officers plan to be present for the occasion. Due to the limited facilities at the Temple and the proposed remodeling program, the festivities will be held at the Farmington Junior High School, 33000 Thomas Street. ADVANCE reservations and notices must be in no later than May 10. To bring the Centennial activities to a conclusion, several church services are being planned at the Temple on Sunday, May 23. Services are scheduled to start at 2 p.m.

Boy Scouts Swim Camp

Scout Troop 110, sponsored by the Men's Club of Our Lady of Sorrows Church, is participating in a current project of swimming one night a week at the Bentley High School pool. All members of the troop are invited to participate in this memorable historical event. Anyone desiring further information may contact Jack Currie, W.M. GR. 4-2927 or Howard Legg, GR. 4-2594. SOME of the past winter's activities included a campout at Bald Mountain for 18 boys. Another camping activity, which featured patrol leader training for 15 boys, was a weekend expedition to a deer cabin in a densely wooded area near West Branch. All the members of the troop Green Bar participated. The current troop activities include a Court of Honor presented by the troop on Wednesday evening, April 21 at Our Lady of Sorrows Social Hall. Parents of the boys and Cub Scouts were invited to attend. A campout at Proud Lake was held April 23-25. This was a troop activity with Scout advancement as the objective and emphasis on hiking, cooking, woodlore and nature study for First and Second Class Scout requirements. Included on the Troop's schedule is a canoe trip on the Au Sable River on the first weekend of June. The final Troop activity for the current scouting season will be a full week camping session at Camp Agawam, near Lake Orion. OLS will enter essays based on the theme established by the American Bar Association, "To Uphold the Law-A Citizen's First Duty." Sponsored by the Oakland County Bar Association Auxiliary, the three winners in the essay contest will be given cash awards. All students participating in the county competition will receive certificates of merit.
