City Police Chief Gets Death Threat

Gets Death Throat
Farmington City Chief of Police Maurice D. Foliz this week dismissed as "obviously the work of a mentally deranged person" an anonymous death included which was postmarked May 4 from Detroit.
The letter, which also contained derogatory remarks to "Johnson" and "Hoover", prompted Chief Foliz to add a note of humor to the incident by adding "I'm flattered to be included with such fine company, if the letter, as I take it, also is alluding to the President any, if the letter, as I take it, so is alluding to the President and the Director of the FBI."
