The Women's Association meeting was held last week Tuesday at the home of Sue Gardon, Nineteen were present at the meeting including two newcomers — Rosella Harvith and Ethel Mainster. Grace-Fisher and I were co-hostesses. Our plans for strawberry shortcake were upset due to the sudden hot weather which prevented any berries being shipped from California. But ce cream on Grace's delicious brownies tasted very fine. And the straight of the control of the subject of the sudden hot weather which will go in September to work for his master's degree. Congratulations bavil!

AN ORIGINAL PAGEANT narrated in verse was produced by the fourth grade classes of Mrs. Mildred Kruse and Mrs. Janet Rader at Highmeadow School on May 6. Some 71 children participated in the production which outlined American history from the landing of the Pilgrins to Alaska's statehood. The audience was composed of 4th grade parents and schoolmates. The scene pictured above is that of fourth graders, each representing one of the 50 states in ite Union, taking turns at telling in verse the items for which their state is famous and other information. At heatier-in-the-round was created for the staging of the pageant. The principal at Highmeadow Elementary School is Donald Hosler.
