Community Church Offers College Prep Seminar
The Southfield Community Church, 21122 Indian Street (between Beech and Inkster, North of Eight Mile) is conducting a four-week College Prep Seminar for its young people during the month of May, according to Pastor Raymond Bayne.
The intent of the seminar is to help prepare the young people of the church for the conflicts and challenges to their faith which they will meet in college or other post high school experiences. College and university men involved in these conflicts will be the leaders of the seminars. Their own faith is an indication it is possible to be acquainted with all the facts of the modern scientific world and still hold to the historic Christian faith.
THE SESSIONS will be held during the Bible School hour at 8:45 on Sunday and would include the 11th and 12th graders and the college group of the church.
The speakers for the seminars will include Dr. Gordon VanWylen, of the University of Michigan on May 9, speaking on "The Bible and Science." On May 16 Jack Cutting of the Michigan State University counseling staff will speak on "The Bible and Psychology."
