

Echos of... Pleasant Valley

Judy Meyers has set June 28 as the date of her marriage to John Zimmerman of Farmington. Judy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Meyers of Hidden Valley Court.

Judy was feted Sunday, May 16, by her maid-of-honor-to-be, Pat Murphy, at a shower given at Pat's home in Detroit. Among Pleasant Valley friends attending were Nancy McPaul, Joanne Lee, "Jimmy" Bopp, Doris Frederick, Sally Gaines, Margaret Schaeffer, and, of course, Judy, mother, Shirley Meyers.

May 16, incidentally, was Shirley Meyers' birthday. Other May birthdays in Pleasant Valley include Wanda Lee who was 11 on May 10, Billy Schaeffer who became 10 years old on May 7, and Billy's sister, Virginia, six years old on May 20. Billy invited Andy Scott of neighboring Old Homestead subdivision to spend the night with him to help celebrate his birthday.

Among those invited to a party for Virginia Schaeffer on Saturday, May 22, were Gregg Harris, Billy Plimbat, Brent McPaul, Barbara Christian, Susie Gaines, and Jill Pymcane.

Pleasant Valley residents are delighted to welcome Mrs. Spencer J. Heaney who moved into her new home on Hidden Valley Drive last week.

Diane Line Job's Queen

Miss Diane Line, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Line, was recently elected Honored Queen of Farmington Bethel 56, International Order of the Job's Daughters.

Also elected to serve for the ensuing term of six months were Jerre Bachelor, Senior Recorder and Soloist; Kathy Murphy, Musician; Leslie Souger, Treasurer; Patty Shook, Librarian; Judy Thomas, Senior Custodian; Mary Ann Capo, Junior Custodian; Cindy Line, Inner Guard; Cindy Mitchell, Outer Guard.

The Messengers are Diane McLean, Nancy Reynolds, Cindy Morris, Candice Slagle, and Mary Ann Capo. Miss Kathy Sabon will serve as Bethel Flag Bearer.

TENTATIVE PLANS for the coming term include a strawberry social, swimming party, slumber party, roller skating party, Halloween Party, Friendship Night and a Go-To-Church Sunday.

Highlight of the term will be the celebration of the Bethel's 10th Birthday to be held on December 11.

Public Installation of Officers and Bethel Choir will be held at the Masonic Temple on Saturday, June 12.

Elsae Realty Has Second Record Month

Stanton M. Elsie, President of the Elsie Realty & Investment Company, reports record sales for April, 1965, totaling $2,273,427. This represents a gain of more than 38% over April sales of last year and is the highest monthly sales volume ever recorded in the thirty-six year history of the firm. This is the second consecutive month that a new all-time record high has been set and only the second month in the firm's history that more than $2,000,000 in sales have been made.

Rentals of single family residences are in extreme short supply and in many areas almost non-existent.

Thomas, Degenhardt Wed In Candlelight Ceremony

Carole Linda Thomas, daughter of Mrs. Hazel Thomas of Farmington and the late William C. Thomas, was married to Mr. Richard Degenhardt on April 24. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Degenhardt, Farmington, Mich., and Brilliant, Ohio. The Thomases are former residents of Lexington Township, Bedford Township.

The double ring ceremony was an afternoon candlelight service at the Grace Lutheran Church with the Rev. Victor F. Halboth and the Rev. V. Frederick Halboth officiating.

Mrs. Louis Bruggman played an organ prelude of bridal music. THE BRIDE, GIVEN in marriage by her brother, J. William Thomas, was attired in a white slipper satin and chantly lace gown. The lace bodice had a scooped neckline and wrist-length sleeves. The empire waist molded into a slim skirt with a slight train. Her shoulder-length veil of French illusion was accented with a nosegay of white satin roses. She carried a cascade of white roses and green ivy.

Her maid of honor was Miss Marcella Wadsworth; and bridesmaids were Miss Mary Lee West, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Dennis Sherman. The attendants' gowns were similar to that of the bride, with the maid of honor's a deep pink bodice and white floor-length skirt and the bridesmaids' aqua and white. All carried cascades of flowers that matched their gowns.

James Degenhardt, cousin of the bridegroom from Brilliant, Ohio, served as best man; and groomsmen were Gary Matthews, cousin of the bridegroom; Craig Thomas, nephew of the bride; Charles West, cousin of the bride; and Thomas Newell.

CAROL THOMAS, niece of the bride, wore a pink organza gown with a white lace bodice and carried a basket of rose petals as flower girl.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Chapman, Negaunee Road.

Serve as Delegates To St. Conference
Drs. A. J. Scarchilli, Southfield, and James Powell, Pontiac served in the House of Delegates of the Michigan Association of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons during its 67th annual conference here, May 10-12. The House is the policy making body of the Michigan association.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, Canada. They will make their home at 22950 Middle Belt Road in Farmington.

The bride is a fashion model and is a 1962 graduate of Redford Union High School. Her husband, a 1962 graduate of James Degenhardt.
