

AN OLD WORLD FESTIVAL was staged by the sixth grade social studies classes at the Highmeadow Elementary School May 20 with mothers providing dishes of food representing many of the countries and students dressing in costumes native to the various countries. Pictured above in the serving line are (L to R) Highmeadow teacher Mrs. Marjorie Sage, Charlotte Martin, wearing a costume of India, Mel Blackman, also a Highmeadow teacher, Mrs. Joan Tobin and her son Michael, Mrs. Kay Wilson and Mrs. Nina Toffanelli (two at extreme right unidentified). Exhibits were also displayed in the Highmeadow gym depicting characteristic items from different countries, all prepared in the social studies classes at Highmeadow.

Westlake News

BY NANCY WILSON 476-4413

The Westlake Village Homeowners Association now totals 101 members. The board would like to thank you one and all and also welcome you to the Association.

Top priority of the May 23 meeting held at the Shawnee School was traffic control signs and lamps at the entrances of the subdivision. A vote was taken and the results are as follows: Traffic Signs, 63 for, 3 against, 1 abstain. Lamps 38 for, 26 against.

PAT SCHAFFER CALLED the county Monday morning to find out how soon we can have our signs erected and is sorry to announce that they cannot be put up for six to eight weeks. The total cost of the signs will be $325.50 and will be paid for by the Homeowners Association dues.

Attention All Homeowners: Are you interested in new and reduced trash rates? If so, please contact Harold Sweet, 474-5368, or MaryAnn Pollock, 476-4790.

If anyone is interested in joining the Westlake Village Homeowners Association, please contact Jack Wilson, 476-4413.

Found: Man's light beige jacket size 42. Left at the school last Sunday night. Please inquire at 30147 So. Stockton.

EDWARD AND SHIRLEY Conner of Glenmoor Heights Drive have an out-of-town visitor. Shirley's mother, Mrs. Henry Rademacher, is spending a few days with them. Mrs. Rademacher is from Muskegon.

The Workers of Mary of Westlake Village held their election last Thursday evening. They have elected: chairman, Pat Hebert of Flank; co-chairman, Joyce Laskovsky of South Stockton; and secretary-treasurer, Florence Briolat of Ashley. Congratulations to all. The welcome mat is out this week for Hugh and Billie Blackwell and children, Kathy and Michael, who are living on No. Stockton. They previously resided in Detroit. Hugh is an installer for Michigan Bell Telephone Co.

Shirley Conner was hostess at a bridal shower in her home for her niece, Carol Jean Crabtree. Twenty-two guests had salad cake and coffee. Carol Jean will be married June 19 to David Mundorf.

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY held surprise birthday parties for Virginia Delp and Janet Tossava. Cake, ice cream and coffee were served at Virginia's home on Thursday and at Diane Hollapp's home for Janet on Friday. The guests from Barfield included Virginia and Janet, Diane Hollapp, Lauretta Paul and Janet Buchheit.

The Crazy Eight Pinochle Club took off again last Saturday. They went downtown to

C. Welti Given 1st DMC Award
Carl Welti, advertising production manager, Detroit Edison Company, was pleasantly surprised in receiving the Direct Mail Club of Detroit "Man of the Year" award at their annual meeting held at the Detroit Playboy Club recently.
A founding member of the DMC-D Welti was cited for his many contributions to the local and national organization. He is a past president and present treasurer of DMC-D and has served as education chairman for several years.
The award will be presented annually to a DMC-D member for outstanding service. Welti, who lives at 28154 Westmeath, Kimberley Subdivision, Farmington, was the first recipient of the award.

Carl's Chop House for lunch and enjoyed every minute of it. The gadsabouts included aith Morgan, Pat Schaefer, Barbara Williams, Barbara Carlisle, Darlene Tomecek and Mary Ann Goetz.
BRAND NEW TWIN baby girls are in the news this week. Meredith and Jennifer were born March 30 and were welcomed home by their adopted parents Jim and Jan. Frederick and his sister Stephanie of Glenmoor Heights Drive this week.
Hostess at a wild pinochle game Monday night was Annie Nell of Tuck Dr. A m o n g her guests were Charlotte Binder, Judy Eastman, Paula Jurnan, Barbara Miller and Nancy Wilson all of So. Stockton Dr.

Anniversary bouquets for Al and Ellen Zanke who will be married six years on May 30.

Birthday wishes this week go to Ann Olaszewski, who will be 5 on May 27 and is celebrating with her parents and grandparents; and to Anne Goetz, who will be 1 year old on June 1.

Grace and Dick Taylor returned to Wood Creek May 14 after wintering in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Quite a bit of their time was spent on the boat they bought. It was out of water two-and-a-half months while they put a fiberglass bottom on it. But now it should be ready for them to go on cruises next winter.

THEL AND GEORGE Sheri-ff are also back after a winter at Boca Raton, Fla. On the way down, they stopped in Titusville, Fla. for four days to visit their old friends, Col. and Mrs. Nuzum—the friends they visited when in France a couple of years ago. Col. Nuzum has now retired to Titusville. In Boca Raton, they rented a house but have now bought land and their plan to build in the near future. They also joined a club, took golf lessons, and did a lot of beaching and swimming. Ethel's sister and brother-in-law, the George Whinnerys of Des Moines, Iowa, came on and spent ten days with them.

The Franklin Community Church had a banquet last Saturday night at Jeri's for the choir. There were some 40 who attended the dinner. Al and a Ginny Albertsen were there, the Fishers, of course, and their daughter, Nancy Fanzini, is also a choir member. Following the dinner some 30 returned here to the Fishers and enjoyed listening to the recording made of Vivid's Gloria when they sang it at the church last Christmas time.

JIM AND MARILYN Brown left here the end of April going to New Orleans for the National Armored Car convention. They stayed at the Royal Orleans Hotel and, when the convention was over, remained there for a few more days. Jim then had to fly back to work while Marilyn flew to Corpus Christi, Texas where

PICTURED ABOVE (Left to Right) Consumers Power Company servicemen Jens C. Buckhave and Roger S. Liberty discuss the use of seat belts with Glenn E. Macomber, Appliance Service Supervisor.

On Monday at 2 p.m. from the Chapel of the Thayer Funeral Home, Farmington with Rev. V. Frederick Halboth of Grace Lutheran Church officiating. Interment was in Oakland Hills Memorial Gardens, Novi.

Mrs. Ashton is survived by her Mother, Mrs. Clara Courtney of Livonia; one daughter, Mrs. Carol Halboth of Ypsilanti; and two sons, Richard D. of Livonia and David H. Ashton of San Antonio, Texas. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Robert Fessler of Livonia and three brothers, Edward C. Gillespie of Farmington, Charles E. Gillespie of Redford Township and Raymond E. Gillespie of San Antonio, Texas. Four grandchildren also survive.

EDNA M. LAING
Mrs. Edna M. Laing, 26269 Novi Road, Novi, Michigan passed away at her residence on Friday evening, May 21.

Mrs. Laing was born July 27, 1892, in Farmington Township, the daughter of Charles and Sophia Staman Westphal. She had lived in Farmington and Novi all of her life.

Mrs. Laing was a member of the Farmington Salem United Church of Christ and the Farmington Chapter O.E.S. No. 239.

Funeral services took place on Monday at 11 a.m. from the Chapel of the Thayer Funeral Home, Farmington with Rev. Carl H. Schultz of the Salem United Church of Christ officiating. Interment was in Oakland Cemetery, Farmington.

Surviving are two sons, C. Harold Cox of San Antonio, Texas and C. Ivan Cox of Walled Lake; she also leaves seven grandchildren.

One of the largest lake trout ever caught anywhere was landed at Grand Haven in 1904. It weighed 88 pounds.

Mayfair Co-Op Names "Grads"
Mayfair Cooperative Nursery has 18 "graduates" ready to enter kindergarten next fall. Those eagerly looking forward to entering school are James Murray, John Murray, Craig Bleich, Kevin Young, Gary Keolan, Michael Jonas, Bobby Vartabedian, Shannon Coyle, Judy Powers, Michelle Mager, Lisa Northway, Bobby Koeler, Kristen Johnson, Katie Dyer, Carrie Hajjar, Susan Walz, Margot Snyder and Betsy Helke.

Mayfair Nursery, conducted by qualified, licensed teachers assisted by the children's mothers, has openings for the fall semester for three and four-year-olds.

Parents interested in having their children attend the nursery school are asked to contact Mrs. Ann Lawson, 35354 Edythe, Farmington, 474-6340.

The school, located on Middlebelt Road between North-western Highway and 14 Mile Road, is a member of the Detroit Council of Cooperative Nurseries, Michigan Council of Cooperative Nurseries and the American Council of Cooperative Nurseries.

Shop in Farmington

CubPack168 Give Several Boys Awards

Cub Scouts of Pack 168, sponsored by the Ten Mile P.T.A., have been busy working on their awards and arrows. Evidence of this work was seen at the April and May pack meetings when the merits of achievements were awarded.

In April the following awards were given: Jim Jewell, Bear badge; Curtis DeMarco, Lion badge; Carl Brodie, Gold arrow; Ron Maniewski, Silver arrow; Steve Lord, Lion badge, gold and silver arrows; Dirk Moore, Bear badge; Jim Kurtz, Wolf badge, gold arrow; Steve Lord, Webelos Patch; and a Carl Emmert, Webelos patch.

Last Friday, May 21, Cubmaster Don Lord was presented with a Pack Leader Appreciation Certificate. Other awards presented by Achievement Chairman, Harold Bevan, included: Alan DeMarco, Bob Cat pin; Peter Koinis, Denner; Richard Pryor, Bear badge, gold and silver arrows; David Harrison, Den Chief Appreciation Certificate; Jim Horn, Bear badge; Ron Maniewski, gold arrow; Larry Thompson, silver arrow, Assistant Denner, Steve Whaley, Bear badge; Tom Shelbels, Wolf badge, gold arrow and two silver arrows, denner; Mike Dielendin, Den Chief Appreciation Certificate; James Kurtz, Gold arrow, denner; Mike McCaughan, Bob Cat Pin, Assistant denner; Chris Flagg, Gold arrow; Dirk Moore, Silver arrow; Craig Bevan, Silver arrow.

Highlighting the May Pack meeting was the safety program presented by Sgt. Jay Harrison and Ron Watson of the Farmington Police Dept. The demonstration of mouth-to-mouth breathing greatly interested all the Cubs.

Plans for the pack picnic to be held at Kensington on June 27 beginning at 10:30 a.m. were presented by Mr. Gus Trikes. All of the Cubs will participate in a Pinewood Derby and games and races for the whole family will guarantee a fun-filled day.

The Franklin Garden Club will meet at 3 p.m. June 3, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Shoemaker, 24924 Riverwood, in Franklin. Courtesy of Consumers Power, Mr. Arthur Shlakieski will be our speaker and his topic is "When Michigan was Young."

To Be Initiated Into Phi Beta Kappa
Marion Kingsley of 33315 Shawassee, Farmington, will be initiated into the Wayne State University Phi Beta Kappa chapter at dinner ceremonies Thursday, May 27 in McGregor Memorial Conference Center. To be eligible for the country's oldest scholastic honor society, student must have a 3.6 out of a possible 4 point grade average.

How? Through my State Farm Mutual agent. He helped me get financing through a local cooperating bank and that low cost bank financing really saves you money! Then I insured the car with State Farm too, and with their low rates I saved even on the insurance! Guess a lot of car owners save like this with State Farm. Say... why don't you call your State Farm agent?

SAVED $125 on my last car!

Fred P. Samra 32300 Grand River GR. 6-1880

STATE FARM Mutual Automobile Insurance Company Home Office: Bloomington, Illinois

On my last car!

How? Through my State Farm Mutual agent. He helped me get financing through a local cooperating bank and that low cost bank financing really saves you money! Then I insured the car with State Farm too, and with their low rates I saved even on the insurance! Guess a lot of car owners save like this with State Farm. Say... why don't you call your State Farm agent?

Fred P. Samra 32300 Grand River GR. 6-1880

STATE FARM Mutual Automobile Insurance Company Home Office: Bloomington, Illinois

OBITUARIES

ELVA MAE ASHTON
Mrs. Elva Mae Ashton of 20214 Deering Avenue, Livonia passed away on Friday morning, May 21, in the Garden City Osteopathic Hospital following an extended illness.

Mrs. Ashton was born November 6, 1917, in Cincinnati, Ohio, the daughter of Charles and Clara Woods Gillespie. She lived in Redford Township and Livonia for the past several years.

Mrs. Ashton had been employed prior to her illness in the Civil Service Department as Supervisor of Publications. She was a member of the San Antonio, Texas chapter O.E.S.

Funeral services took place on Monday at 2 p.m. from the Chapel of the Thayer Funeral Home, Farmington with Rev. V. Frederick Halboth of Grace Lutheran Church officiating. Interment was in Oakland Hills Memorial Gardens, Novi.

Mrs. Ashton is survived by her Mother, Mrs. Clara Courtney of Livonia; one daughter, Mrs. Carol Halboth of Ypsilanti; and two sons, Richard D. of Livonia and David H. Ashton of San Antonio, Texas. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Robert Fessler of Livonia and three brothers, Edward C. Gillespie of Farmington, Charles E. Gillespie of Redford Township and Raymond E. Gillespie of San Antonio, Texas. Four grandchildren also survive.

EDNA M. LAING
Mrs. Edna M. Laing, 26269 Novi Road, Novi, Michigan passed away at her residence on Friday evening, May 21.

Mrs. Laing was born July 27, 1892, in Farmington Township, the daughter of Charles and Sophia Staman Westphal. She had lived in Farmington and Novi all of her life.

Mrs. Laing was a member of the Farmington Salem United Church of Christ and the Farmington Chapter O.E.S. No. 239.

Funeral services took place on Monday at 11 a.m. from the Chapel of the Thayer Funeral Home, Farmington with Rev. Carl H. Schultz of the Salem United Church of Christ officiating. Interment was in Oakland Cemetery, Farmington.

Surviving are two sons, C. Harold Cox of San Antonio, Texas and C. Ivan Cox of Walled Lake; she also leaves seven grandchildren.

One of the largest lake trout ever caught anywhere was landed at Grand Haven in 1904. It weighed 88 pounds.

Mayfair Co-Op Names "Grads"
Mayfair Cooperative Nursery has 18 "graduates" ready to enter kindergarten next fall. Those eagerly looking forward to entering school are James Murray, John Murray, Craig Bleich, Kevin Young, Gary Keolan, Michael Jonas, Bobby Vartabedian, Shannon Coyle, Judy Powers, Michelle Mager, Lisa Northway, Bobby Koeler, Kristen Johnson, Katie Dyer, Carrie Hajjar, Susan Walz, Margot Snyder and Betsy Helke.

Mayfair Nursery, conducted by qualified, licensed teachers assisted by the children's mothers, has openings for the fall semester for three and four-year-olds.

Parents interested in having their children attend the nursery school are asked to contact Mrs. Ann Lawson, 35354 Edythe, Farmington, 474-6340.

The school, located on Middlebelt Road between North-western Highway and 14 Mile Road, is a member of the Detroit Council of Cooperative Nurseries, Michigan Council of Cooperative Nurseries and the American Council of Cooperative Nurseries.

Shop in Farmington

YOUNG RANDY RENCE, 12, is pictured above with a bike he purchased for 50 cents at the Annual Farmington Township Police Auction staged last Saturday, May 22, at the Farmington Township Hall. Tim, who attends the Gull Road Elementary School, got an assist from Farmington Township Police Lieutenant Tom Schirber in claiming his auction prize.

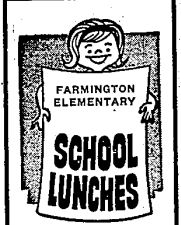

Mayfair Co-Op Names "Grads"
Mayfair Cooperative Nursery has 18 "graduates" ready to enter kindergarten next fall. Those eagerly looking forward to entering school are James Murray, John Murray, Craig Bleich, Kevin Young, Gary Keolan, Michael Jonas, Bobby Vartabedian, Shannon Coyle, Judy Powers, Michelle Mager, Lisa Northway, Bobby Koeler, Kristen Johnson, Katie Dyer, Carrie Hajjar, Susan Walz, Margot Snyder and Betsy Helke.

Mayfair Nursery, conducted by qualified, licensed teachers assisted by the children's mothers, has openings for the fall semester for three and four-year-olds.

Parents interested in having their children attend the nursery school are asked to contact Mrs. Ann Lawson, 35354 Edythe, Farmington, 474-6340.

The school, located on Middlebelt Road between North-western Highway and 14 Mile Road, is a member of the Detroit Council of Cooperative Nurseries, Michigan Council of Cooperative Nurseries and the American Council of Cooperative Nurseries.

Shop in Farmington

MAY 31 HOLIDAY

June 1
Sloppy Joe
Buttered Corn
Fruit
Peanut Butter Cookie
Milk

June 2
Baked Beans with Wieners
Spinach
Cornbread and Butter
Fruit
Milk

June 3
Roast Beef
Mashed Potatoes & Gravy
Buttered Peas
Bread and Butter
Fruited Jello
Milk

June 4
Fish Sticks
Parsley Potatoes
Green Beans
Cherry-Orange Bread and Butter
Dessert
Milk

Another Longstanding Public Service Feature of The Farmington Enterprise

Shop in Farmington

DON'T MAKE A MOVE Until You See Our BRAND NEW '65

BUICK SPECIALS at ONLY $2097 INCLUDES

2 Door model with heater, directional signals oil filter and full factory equipment.

UP TO 42 MONTHS TO PAY DENTON BUICK COMPANY

"DENTON DOES WHAT OTHERS DON'T"

On GRAND RIVER, 2 Blks. N. of 7 Mile KE. 1-2506