This Is Kimberley

BY VERA R. KERASTAS 474-3337

That 16 pound, 3-holed ball in an apartment favored in our area. The Kimberley family of League is another group that throws this weight around regularly at Bel-Aire Lanes on Sunday nights. They celebrated their awards dinner at the Frontier Inn on Saturday, May 29.

The first place winning team members are Carl and Marion Kilka and Bud and June Reasume. With a score of 247, Jerry Kowalski won the men's high game award and a score of 255 won for Rose Peterson, the women's high game award.

THE HIGH SERIES winners were John Bowlick for men with 715 and Jill Emerson with 594. The team high series winners with 2092 were Pat and Jane Ryan, and Ray and Rose Peterson. The team high score award of 778 went to Dave and Carol Stader and Charles and Lorraine Willson. Most improved bowler award went to Jane Ryan.

New officers for the coming year are: President, Pat Ryan; Vice-President, Ray Peterson; and Secretary-Treasurer, Carl Kilka.

Just in time for his award, Dave Stader returned from an ideal vacation at K y West where it is 85 degrees with a cool breeze. The on catch-stint for the Naval Reserve as a Lt. Commander supply officer for the helicopter squadron.

PROUDLY LISTENING to the tinkling of those 81 ivories, the parents of the pupils of Mrs. Walter Frontz of Dundalk were treated to the Annual Spring Piano Recital. The nine practiced performers were Kathy and Mike Alber, Pam and Pat Angell, Linda Erickson, Susan Kemp, Paula Leonard, Susan Toohy and Susan Throgmorton.

Continuing with the co-op program at Sears in the retailing department, Chico (Albert) Lorenzer will also find time to play his guitar in the band for parties. This eagle scout's primary interest, which is conservation, will be further developed at Schoolcraft College.

The day after graduation, Jo Ann Miller of Barwell will begin her new formal education at Ferris Institute in Big Rapids with physical education or speech in mind.

Moving laws and a job at A&P will occupy Roger Minge of Pipers Lane until school starts for him at Michigan State, majoring in a scientific field, probably math.

Diane Moulton will enter

Flint Community College for practical nursing in the fall. The Moulton family is planning to move soon to their new Bloomfield Hills ranch home.

A business machine course in the fall is Mary O'Donnell's cup of tea, after a summer of employment.

A G.M. warehouse task will occupy sports-minded Ron Peterson of Wicklow. He plans to study pre-law at Michigan State in the fall.

Another graduate of Eastern University is Peggy Proctor of Badamiann Court to study education. Right now she is working as a dietary aide at Boisfort General Hospital and for relaxation, she plays the piano. The whole Proctor family is leaving the day after graduation on a motor trip to Florida, stopping to visit friends in Hastings and especially to visit Cape Canaveral and the NBC Communications Center there.

MARY SCHOOLEY of Greythorne will enter Clergy Business College in Ypsilanti in the autumn, after working for the Blue Cross these hot months.

Majoring in business administration at Central Michigan University, Carol Wheeler of Westmeath, also plans to work this summer.

Nan Vankoughnet of Greythorne will graduate from Cooley High School in Detroit on June 24 where she was in the choir. Carol Wheeler of Honor Society. After a summer of lounging about, she will enter Purdue University with an eye on interior decorating or home economics.
