Travel and vacation spots are on everyone's mind. But it we all have such diversified concepts. Here are two widely and widely different selections. Having a choice, which would you pick?

Belonging to the "English-Speaking Union," a world-wide organization which promotes goodwill throughout the world, C. R. and Mrs. Leslie Joy of Barwell were able to join a chartered motor coach.

After a week in Italy, they boarded a chartered ship which cruised the mysterious North Atlantic. After a week of Gibraltar, they toured Spain for five days and then on to a five-day holiday in Portugal. Flying back home, they also had a stop in London.

BELONGING to the international group "the call-of-the-birds," C. R. Kerastas and John, 11, and an uncle and cousin motored to San Luis, Marie, Ontario last week. There they boarded the Algonia train for a 63-mile straight-through ride to the beautiful Montreal River for a week of backwoods, rustic life, but quiet fishing.

Not the sight of bear, moose or porcupine steered them from their rods and reels. Biggest northern pike caught. This was 31 1/2 inches long, the one that towed one pole away. Oh, better luck next time!

Not fair for people to get sick in this nice weather! John Alber's mother took him to his preschool physical two weeks ago. After receiving his shots, it was found, through this routine check-up, that John was having a kidney difficulty. Tuesday, June 1, John entered Providence Hospital for three days of testing and observation. An infection had settled in his kidneys and he was already on the way to recovery with little apparent permanent damage. Now John is home suffering from laryngitis, having loudly voiced his protest to being made a patient.

Recently, bride-to-be Sharon Kuester of Barwell convalesced for 10 days at Cottage Hospital in Grosse Pointe. Having found problems since Easter and losing 25 pounds, Sharon was sent to hospital. Now back to work, she can enjoy working her forth-coming wedding.

Having a JUDY and HARRY Magee have reluctantly sold their home on Pipers Lane to move to Cincinnati, Ohio the end of July. Harry will assume the duties of personnel director for the Eagle Picher Co. which has many industrial facilities.

Until the completion of their new home, the family of 9, and Susie, 8 months, will visit her family in Washington, D.C.

From Livonia, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Butcher have moved into the former McManey home on Wicklow with their children, Eddie, 9, Cheryl, 8, and Kim, 4.

Butcher Furs on Grand River and Southfield is where Ed spends his days and evenings. Marilyn and Ed like to bowl sometimes.

A STEAK COOK-OUT was a pleasant way for Tom and Georgia Young of Barwell to celebrate their 18th wedding anniversary with friends. Chuckling over the wedding pictures were the Frank Maciejalski, the John Kerastas, the Dick Feketes of Alma Park and the John Feketes of Livonia.

Saturday, May 29, on Police 31-1/2 Street in Farmington to investigate the two cars that had been ridden with B-B shots. The use of firearms, air-riders, and B-B guns illegal.

Many of you may recall that last year a small boy was hit in the eye with a B-B shot. Let us, as parents, be more alert to the dangers of these items.
