

THE RAIDERS CUP, presented for the first time at North Farmington High School at the Sports Award Banquet held there last Wednesday night, was awarded to senior athlete and scholar Andy Lawing (center) who is flanked by banquet speaker Morley Fraser of Albion College (left), and Raider football coach Ron Holland. Andy played football, basketball and baseball at North Farmington and maintained top grades in all his academic subjects. The Raider Cup is comparable to the AschenBrenner Award which goes to the Farmington High School senior who has excelled in sports throughout his prep years and has exhibited strong qualities of leadership and good sportsmanship.

Jaycees Win Close One

The Farmington Junior Chamber of Commerce softball team nipped their arch rival, Milford, last Wednesday night at City Park, 5-4. Milford, always a tough opponent for Farmington, led throughout the game and it wasn't until the last inning that Farmington was able to put together a sustained rally and literally pull the game out of the fire. HARV WILSON, who sparked the Jaycees to excellent play in the field, had one of his patented game winning hits when he drove in 2 runs with a double with the bases loaded when Milford led, 4-3. Farmington now has won its first 2 games in Jaycee District competition and Manager Al Stittick feels they are definitely capable of winning another championship. The Jaycees meet Berkeley tonight at City Park and play every Wednesday night in Farmington through August.

Blue Star Mothers Express "Thanks"

The Blue Star Mothers of Farmington and their honored members, the Gold Star Mothers, felt very highly honored on Memorial Day when they were included in the luncheon invitation at Botsford Inn. Members expressed a wish to give a sincere "thank you" to all those who had a part in the invitation. The Chapter also says "thank you" to Gregory Lint and Bryan Lussenden, Boy Scouts, and Dorothy Gay, one of the Blue Star Mother Auxiliary members for carrying the organization's banners. We rode in style thanks to the men of the American Legion. The regular May meeting was taken up with many things. Irene Kreuger took pictures of the "Mothers" and these pictures are to appear in the yearbook. Chapter 49, through May Fox, Patriotic Chairman, and President Ethel Lint presented a flag to the Browne troop led by Mrs. Burns at Flanders School. The State Convention of Blue Star Mothers is in progress at this writing. It is being held in the Hotel Bancroft in Saginaw. Delegates from Chapter 49 are President Ethel Lint and Secretary Virginia Lindsay. Also attending from the Chapter will be Irene Kreuger who is 3rd vice president for the Michigan Dept.

Andy Lawings Receives NFHS Kathy Sevin Award

Andy Lawing, president of the North Farmington Senior Class of 1965, received the first annual Kathy Sevin Memorial Award at the school's Swing-Out program last Friday. The award, established this year, will be presented annually in memory of Miss Kathy Sevin, a member of the Class of 1964. A permanent plaque will be displayed in the high school building with the name of each year's recipient engraved on a brass plate. An individual plaque will be given to the award winner each year. The award represents the highest tribute paid to a graduating senior. The student who receives this award is an outstanding scholar, has proven leadership ability, has given extra-ordinary service to the school, and is of the highest personal character. Lawing was also the recipient of the Raider Cup, given for outstanding sports activities and scholastic achievement. Graduating with high honors, Lawing has also been awarded an Alfred P. Sloan Foundation scholarship by Oberlin College. Receives Degree
