Mr. and Mrs. "Doc" Herrington are the proud grandparents of a grandson, Timothy, born Sept. 19 to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Herrington of Detroit.

The week-end of September 14 was a busy one at the Witke home on Bayberry Road. Saturday, a double birthday party was given in honor of Billy Witke who was two years old and Ronnie Witke who was three years old. The boys' guests from Kendallwood were: Johnny and Jimmy Day, Jackie and Susan Rouse, and Gladys Summers, Mike, Kim and Greg MacClaren and Tim and Jeff Thayer. Also attending were Carole Ann Rouse and Chuck and Diane Sidor from Garden City. The children brought their mommies and all enjoyed the games and refreshments.

The following day, the Witkes held a family reunion. Thirty-five guests attended, including Mrs. Mary Witke, Mr. Witke's mother from Silver Springs, Florida. Mrs. Witke is at her son's home for an indefinite stay.

The Kendallwood II Newcomers Club monthly meeting was held at the home of Mrs. George Williams on Kendallwood Drive Tuesday evening, September 24. Ellen Schenkel, hospitality committee chairman, Lena Vuemir, Edna Laru and Marilyn Waite were hostesses for the evening.

Newly elected president, Mrs. Paul Casper, conducted the meeting which pertained mostly to the business of the coming year.

Volunteers were asked to aid Mrs. Casper who is leading the Town Drive Campaign in Kendallwood II and then the various social groups within the club got together to discuss future plans.

Following are the groups and the chairmen: Jane Nicolay, gardening; Mildred Osue, canasta and pinocle; Marilyn Waite, bridge; Martha Damm, music; Doris Pugini, sewing; Marilyn Schiffer, first aid; Mary DeGraw, golf; Mrs. D. Vocabelli, ceramics; Dolly Miller, drama; and Betty Malmgren, bowling.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson of Peppermill Road enjoyed having many relatives from their hometown of St. Louis, Missouri, as house guests this summer. Mrs. Johnson's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Del Gaudio, were here for a week. Mr. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Johnson, spent two weeks at their son's home and Mrs. Marie Rose, Mrs. Johnson's mother, visited for one week.

A/2C Douglas J. Herrington returned to Washington, D. C., where he is stationed, after a month's furlough at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Herrington of Green Willow Road.

The Herrington home was full of activity while Doug was here. The Herrington's other son, Jack, and his wife from Detroit held a barbeque party for ten couples at his parents' home, Saturday evening, September 14. Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Frazee of Thorny Brae Road showed picture slides later in the evening.

The following week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Carney of Cleveland, Ohio, friends of Doug's, were house guests. The highlight of their visit was another of the Herrington's famous parties Saturday evening, September 21. The other guests attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Louis Arman, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Calderwood from Bedford, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fife, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Folsom, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Frazee, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jara, Mr. and Mrs. Art Major (the Herringtons' son-in-law and daughter) from Berkley, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Prime, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rozman, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Starr and Dr. and Mrs. Leo Timma.
