

West Farmington

MRS. SARAH KNAPP
MA. 6-3883

The Walled Lake Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet Tuesday, October 8, at the home of Mrs. Floyd Howards.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heliker and Mrs. Lawrence Giegler spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Knapp.

John Graham has his new home on Farmington Road nearly completed and expects to move in soon.

Pupils from this area attending the Walled Lake elementary school had a few extra hours off one day last week as water was not sufficient to continue classes for the entire day at school.

Obituary

Frederick G. Allen
Mr. Frederick Allen, 4716 Rockcroft, Waterford, Michigan, passed away suddenly September 27, from a heart condition.

He was born in Farmington, December 28, 1906, the son of Frank and Mabel (Lloyd) Allen.

Mr. Allen was the owner of the Woodman Shade and Blind Company, Pontiac, and previously had been sales manager of Shell Oil Company for twenty years.

He had resided in Waterford for the past ten years.

Mr. Allen leaves his wife, Rosemonde, his mother, Mrs. Mabel Allen of Howell; two brothers, Carlton Allen of Detroit and Robert Allen of Howell; and one sister, Mrs. Ruth Dicks of Detroit.

Funeral services were held at 1:00 p.m. Tuesday at the Spencer J. Heene Funeral Home with Reverend Carl H. Schultz of the Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church, Farmington officiating.

Interment was in Grand Lawn Cemetery, Detroit.

Prayer is not eloquence but earnestness.

Along The Creek In Woodcreek

EMOGENE DAVIS

MA. 6-1407

The September meeting of the Woodcreek Farms Men's Association was held last Thursday night at the home of William Thompson on Salem Road with 28 members present. Co-hosts were Angie Seay.

Alger Clark, president of Wood Creek Farms Village, gave a talk on the progress made in village affairs since incorporation. Verne Fisher, as member of the School Board, also gave a short talk. Speaker of the evening was Bob Nelson, of the League of Sub-division Associations.

Plans were discussed for the football party which will attend the Detroit Lions vs. the Los Angeles Rams game on October 13. Refreshments concluded the evening.

The annual In-Gathering of the Needlework Guild of America is rapidly approaching, and Wood Creek women are asked to bring their contributions to the home of Theresa McKay, 2727 Wellington Road on Thursday, October 3, after 10 a.m.

Items needed are as follows: household linens, blankets and baby articles for use by the Red Cross; baby clothes and children's clothes for ages 4-5 and 9-10, needed by St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, clothes for school teenagers needed by the Oakland County Social Welfare.

Contributions of money are also welcomed and will be used for the shoe fund as well as for running the Birmingham Bloomfield branch of this organization, officials said.

Bob and Ginny Swift and their son, Jack, returned Saturday night from a week's trip through the Smokies. They stopped at Cumberland Falls and then at Oakridge, Tennessee, where they found the Atomic Energy Museum highly fascinating. They visited the Cherokee Village near Gatlinburg and took the Skyline Drive on to Williamsburg. Here history came to life, not only in the historic buildings, but by means of a movie depicting the story of the formation of the Colonial government, shown in an ultra-modern movie theater.

Jamestown was visited briefly and also Jefferson's home, Monticello, at Charlottesville, Virginia.

About 72 members of the Calvary Guild Sunday School Class of small but the four ladies present managed to accomplish the necessary quota. In addition to the hostess, Helen Weighman, Florence Plevin and Eleanor Preuss were pinners.

Borne and Vera Blanchfield spent three weeks visiting relatives in California, returning last weekend. They took numerous side trips, including a visit to Disneyland.

On Wednesday of last week, Genevieve Shepherd entertained her Study Club from Our Lady of Sorrows Church. The refreshment table set with a blue cloth, was beautifully decorated with a rosary made of styrofoam draped across the front of the table, and a statue of the Blessed Mother. The centerpiece was of roses, zinnias and Belle-of-Ireland.

Genevieve also recently entertained the Catholic Daughters of America, Court, Our Lady of Victory 1365, with 28 members present.

Recent dinner guests at the Shepherd home were Genevieve's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Soles, an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rabitt, and also Miss Kathleen McDonough of Toledo.

In the evening the party was joined by other relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Soles of Grosse Ile, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Myrand of Allen Park and Mr. and Mrs. James Sullivan of Detroit, each accompanied by their children.

Hazel and Walter De Gree were house guests of Captain and Mrs. Arthur Townsend of Jackson, Michigan last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Houghton, Bernadine Drive, entertained friends for dinner on Saturday evening.

Dick Houghton was married this summer. He and his bride are now living in Lansing while Dick completes his studies at Michigan State. He is majoring in business administration and will graduate in December.

Charlotte Barkholz will direct the next play by the Farmington Players. This is their first play to be presented at their Barn at Twelve Mile and Powers Road. The original play was written by Don Yates of Farmington.

The Redwoods spent Sunday enjoying their new boat. It is a 16 foot Sealiner with a convertible top which they have docked for the present at Cass Lake.

Joyce Redwood celebrated her birthday with a birthday party given for her Saturday afternoon.

The Hamptons had Mr. and Mrs. Lettis and Mr. and Mrs. Rollins of Royal Oak as their guests for dinner on Saturday.

The social committee met Tuesday evening at the home of Dorothy Clark to make plans for celebrating Halloween in the Subdivision.

Completing Army Field Communication Course

Army (Pvt. Frederick D. Babcock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Babcock, 2894 Broadmoor Drive, Livonia, is scheduled to graduate October 5 from the field communications course at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri.

Babcock is receiving instruction in map reading and in the operation of switchboards.

He is a 1952 graduate of George W. Bentley High School.
