

Visiting Nurses Hold Annual Tea

Miss Emilie Sargent, executive director of the Detroit Visiting Nurse Association, was the guest speaker at the annual tea of the Farmington Visiting Nurse committee, given by Mrs. H. J. Richardson, West Nine-Mile Road, Friday, October 4.

Miss Sargent, who has been associated with VNA for the past 30 years, and who helped organize the local group five years ago, spoke on "Administration and Services the Visiting Nurse Gives to Your Community."

Others present at the tea were Mrs. Joseph M. Wolf, president of the Visiting Nurse board of trustees, Mrs. Gertrude Redmond, district supervisor, members of the Birmingham VNA, present and former members of the local committee, and other guests from the Farmington area.

Since the Visiting Nurse service was inaugurated in Farmington, a tea has been given annually, to acquaint the community with the services offered by the VNA.

Assisting Mrs. Richardson as hostesses were Mrs. Glenn Leland, Mrs. Bernard Rubin, Mrs. Terrell Houston, Mrs. Robert Chesley and Mrs. Fred E. Harrison.
