Mrs. Alexander Chadwick GR. 4-6865

This Sunday, October 20 at the corner lots of Belmont and Staman Circle at 2:00 p.m. the annual Halloween Party (sponsored by the Staman Acres Civic Association) will get underway.

Chairman Hazel McKee asks that the children be there promptly at 2 o'clock wearing their Halloween costumes, even if their parents are unable to make it at that time. Organized games will start at 3 and there will be children from 1 to 12.

Charlotte Waskowski, food chairman, states that the food will be served at 3:30. Assistants Marian Reynolds and Joyce Thompson report that all table servers will be provided and attending families are asked to bring their own folding chairs or camp stools. The traditional costumes for Halloween will be shown off effectively in a parade planned for the benefit of the party. In case of rain the party will be postponed until the following Sunday, October 27.

Tickets for the play "Wake Up, Darling" October 17, 18 and 19 may still be purchased from Maurice Caillolette, GR. 4-5019.

Hazel McKee also has tickets for the Newcomers Club card party to be held at Northland Hospitality House. There will be a dessert luncheon. The affair starts at 12:30. Prizes include a $25 savings bond. For further information call Hazel at GR. 4-5437.

Ron Westfall is slowly recuperating from a double dose of illness.

Petite Debbie Burke had the honor of being flower girl at the wedding of her father's niece, Miss Patricia Bofee to Mr. Greg Bergstrom at Christ The King Church at 10 a.m. on Saturday, October 5. The breakfast and reception was held at Botsford Inn.

Debbie Sue Schafer celebrated her 4th birthday last week at parties over the week-end of October 11 and 12.

On Friday afternoon she had seven little girl friends in for a party.

Games were played, pictures taken and ice cream and cake served with the help of big sister, Linda, and neighbor, Diana Carruthers. The guest Mary Beth Davis and Debbie Carruthers, Noreen and Nadine Terzano, Karen Larson, Randy Lutzen and Debbie Waskowski. Friday evening her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Mohr, were invited to dinner and shared a birthday cake.

Saturday evening Debbie's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schafer, and aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schafer and cousin, Billy, were invited for a barbecue and a third birthday cake.

Wednesday, October 9, Samuel Blackford from Benton, Arkansas, paid a surprise visit to his daughter, Louise Sidlosky and her family. Friday, Mary Beth celebrated her 6th birthday and shared the spotlight with grandfather Blackford whose birthday was October 3. Grandmother, Mrs. Anna Sidlosky, and Mary Beth's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Benedict, were also present at the birthday celebration.

Al and Joyce Thompson entertain guests Friday, October 11. Campbell and Jane Paterson, Cliff and Florence Bragg, Jack and Zora Cross, Marian and Al Reynolds, Catherine and Bob Williams, and Fern Christensen made up the guest list. The occasion was a birthday party for Jane Paterson.

Fred Thompson was home from Michigan State for the weekend. He entertained the younger set present including Donnie Williams and Pat Bragg, with the help of his friend, Dave Paterson.

The Campbell-Paterson family had Campbell's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Paterson, and their grandson, Chester Simpson, from Scotland for a week's visit recently. The brothers hadn't seen each other for 35 years so they had plenty of news to catch up on. The visiting Patersons came over on the "Queen Mary." After their visit ended here they journeyed to Pittsburgh, Indiana, and Lexington, Kentucky, before embarking for "bonnie" Scotland.

The Al Reynolds family motored to Cameron, Illinois to visit their parents the weekend of October 12. The trip down was especially enjoyed because of the glorious array of autumn colors that were displayed everywhere.

The Russell Cleveland family motored to Muskegon last weekend to attend the wedding of Judy's cousin, David Sample. Judy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Anderson, accompanied the Cleveland family to the wedding.

The October Staman Stitches meeting was in tune with the fall season. The table was adorned with fall flowers and the candles were a brilliant orange. The dessert was pumpkin pie served by hostess Joyce Thompson and co-hostesses Dee Ware, Marie Schoten, and Mary Caillolette. Next month's meeting will take place at One-Craft in Ferndale. The pro-

Girls attending were: Linda Agar, Carol Gay, Margaret Gadley, Deane Hull, Karen Hilliard, Susan Innes, Judy Martin, Joan Roberts, Lynda Wells, Sherry Wood, Diana Frazer, Diana White and Susan Smithen.

Congratulations are in order for the Coles family of Wildwood Trail on the birth of a second son, born October 4, weighing 7 pounds, 8 ounces.

Gyn Smith of Wildwood Trail had a baby shower at her home on Monday, October 7, for her sister, Pat Grubbs of Southfield Township. Twenty guests were present.

A cookie shower tea will be held Sunday, October 20, from 3 to 5 p.m. at the home of Jen Lagowski at 28570 Ten Mile Road (at Briar Hill) for all women of Our Lady of Sorrows parish and their neighbors.

Each person attending is asked to bring a batch of their favorite Christmas cookies as a donation. The cookies will be sold at the annual Our Lady of Sorrows Fair on Saturday and Sunday, November 2 and 3.

For further information call GR. 4-6785.

Even a cellophane wrapper, if unbroken, can prevent food from being contaminated by radioactive fallout, according to the Federal Civil Defense Administration. Radioactive materials may be washed off the cellophane, allowing for safe use of the food.

For the evening will be to make Christmas decorations for the home.

Dennis Unks, eldest son of Ray and Millie Unks, was feted Saturday night, October 12, at a going-away party. Dennis left for Air Cadet training at Lockland Air Base in Texas. Thirty-five of his friends were present at the party.

Saturday, October 12, Glen Chadwick and your reporter and husband helped Glen's paternal grandmother, Mrs. Mary Chadkewicz, celebrate her 73rd birthday. Her comments were that she hoped to live to be 100.

No, don't run the ad again, said A. W. Bryant, of 28349 Bayberry when asked if he wished to repeat last week's classified advertisement.

He had listed 16 items, including a portable dishwasher, automatic washer, chair, rollaway bed, radio, picnic and sports equipment, and wood lathe. He priced them in the ad, which helps.

Mr. Bryant says he had lots of calls, and was very pleased with the results.
