

Catholic Youth Week Planned for Area

The week of October 27 to November 3 is National Catholic Youth Week. The highlight of the observance of this week in the Archdiocese will be a Youth Holy Hour held in the University of Detroit Memorial Building Sunday, Nov. 3 at 4:00 p.m.

This Holy Hour is sponsored by the Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Youth. Joseph G. Smith, president of the ACCY, is general chairman of the program.

The sermon will be delivered by Father Edward J. DeMars, pastor of Holy Rosary Parish.

Most Reverend Bishop Alexander Zaleski, D. D. will be the celebrant at the benediction.

All Catholic Youth of the Archdiocese are asked to attend.

A very small, minute character has been very busy this past week, keeping activity in the area at a minimum, namely the flu bug.

However, enough of Susan Woodward's little girl friends were able to gather at her home on Doherty Drive Saturday afternoon to help her celebrate her tenth birthday. Of course the highlight of any such occasion is the birthday cake and ice cream, which followed an afternoon of games.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Tuschling of Powers Road were hosts to a dinner party last Sunday for ten, honoring Mrs. Lee O'Dell, sister of Mr. Tuschling, Mr. and Mrs. O'Dell are from Port Huron.

Doris and Bill Hamill of Powers Road spent the past weekend deer hunting with bow and arrow near Standish. The Robert Hamills of Berkley, Bill's brother, accompanied them on the outing.

Families on Ridgwood are welcoming to their neighborhood Mr. and Mrs. William Cameron, and the children in the area are greeting six new playmates.

Travel Expert Talks For County Women

"Travel Profits By the Carload" will be the theme of a talk to be given by Miss Carol Lane, America's foremost authority on automobile travel, and women's travel director of Shell Oil Company, when she speaks before the Oakland County Home Demonstration Groups October 29, at the Water-Lake Road, Drayton Plains.

Employing visual aids, Miss Lane will demonstrate how to pack, what to wear, how to travel easily with children, how to find suitable restaurants and accommodations and the art of vacation budgeting. A special feature in her suitcase packing technique is the use of "luggage leaves" to separate layers of clothing.

From a week's vacation in Fort Wayne, Ind. They spent their time visiting with Mrs. Putnam's mother and many of her relatives.

The nicest item of the week is an announcement by Jane and Bud Howard, of Moore Drive, of the arrival of their chosen son, Mark Henry, age 16 months.

The J. L. Borens of 33488 Alta Loma, were last week co-hosts with Mr. and Mrs. Max Ostrow of Huntington Woods for a reunion of Company A of the 338th Infantry.

Mr. Borens said that the group are veterans of "Detroit's Own Regiment" from World War I, and were part of the Polar Bear Expedition which went into North Russia. Miss Dorothy York, author of a history of the regiment, was honor guest. Unusual experiences of the expedition have resulted in lifetime associations. This meeting attracted 58 men from all over the country.

At Seng, of Alta Loma Drive, last week attended a convention of the National Tire Dealers held in Cincinnati, Ohio. Daughter Connie on Oct. 11 celebrated her eleventh birthday with a party which included as guests Kathleen Kirby, Lydia Pepper and Sheryl Jean Williams.

The King Gates of Moore Drive have in recent weeks entertained members of both families. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gates of Los Angeles, Calif., were here several weeks ago. Lil's father, Frank Patrick of Saugatuck visited last week. Li Dache Gates brought honor upon all as she was invited to model hats and furs at a fashion show last Thursday at Meadowbrook Country Club.

Drive deserted home and Rene for a trip with Detroit friend Carolyn Frine. They drove east two weeks ago on a tour which included visits to friends in Philadelphia, Pa., and Bennington, Vt.

Alta Loma Subdivision welcomes Mr. and Mrs. Leo Johansen of 3768 Hamlin Court. Mr. Johansen is an employee of Ford Motor Company at the Rouge. Mrs. Johansen's name is Dollie. The couple has a three-month old daughter, Camilla.

After 14 years, old soap is no substitute for dinner, out, if it ever was. Eugene Henderson last Wednesday jokingly presented Peg with some Ivory soap as a commentary on their fourteenth and Ivory anniversary, Oct. 16. Friday they joined friends Betty and Bud Deremo in celebration at the Dyna Inn.

The J. A. Nelsons of Ashabula, Ohio last weekend visited the Glen Nelsons of Alta Loma Drive. They are Glen's parents.

The neighborhood was happy to see old friends and former Moore Drive neighbors, Madeline and Roy Erdmann, who were in from New London, Ohio, with Karen, Sharon and Ronnie.

Schools of Wood

When the Long Beach, California, earthquake of 1933 finished shaking that state, only wood frame schools were left standing undamaged. Now 90 percent of California schools are built of wood, says the West Coast Lumbermen's Association. Just, Californians now build of wood because it makes beautiful buildings which cost less and give more for the money, in addition to being safer in earthquakes.
