Plan Bible School Teachers' Dinner

Bible School Teachers of the Southfield Community Church, 2122 Indian (near Eight Mile and Westland), will hold a teachers' dinner and conference on Monday, November 11, at 6:30 p.m.

Following the dinner, they will be addressed by Dr. Lehman Strauss of the Highland Park Baptist Church.

Numbering some 65, the staff is headed by William Hutchison, superintendent. They have just adopted a new set of comprehensive by-laws for making the Bible School more efficient and effective. Attendance of the Bible School runs between 500 and 550 per Sunday. Classes are held for all departments including a crib nursery and three adult classes. Free transportation is provided with three busses and cars.

Other activities of the church this week include a meeting of the Photo Club on Saturday at 3 p.m., led by Rolfe Whitsett, and a trip to Valley of Christian Youth on Saturday at 6:15 p.m.

Woman's Mission Society To Hear Burma Speaker

The November meeting of the Woman's Mission Society of the North Farmington Baptist Church will be held at the home of Mrs. John Brynne at 29041 Aranel, Westbrooke Manor, on Tuesday, November 12, at 7:45 p.m.

Guest speaker will be Mr. Meung Maung Aye from Burma, now attending the University of Michigan.

Women wishing to attend are invited to bring their husbands as well.

Co-hostesses for the evening program will be Mrs. Robert Waltz and Mrs. William Devlin.

Six Area Churches Form Local Council of United Church Women

Women's organizations from six area churches joined together last week to form a Local Council of United Church Women.

The United women's organizations from Clarencville Methodist, First Methodist Church, Farmington, First Presbyterian Church of Farmington, Orchard Methodist Church, Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church and the Trinity Church, Farmington, (Episcopal).

Earlier in the year a planning committee was formed for the purpose of organizing a proposed local council. The president and two other members of the women's organizations of each of the six area churches, all eligible for membership in the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., met with Mrs. Leonard Stidwill, First Methodist Church, and Mrs. Fred Hamilton, First Presbyterian Church, and indicated their approval to the formation of a local council. Assistance at this first planning committee meeting was given by Mrs. J. Young, executive secretary of the Michigan Council of United Church Women, and Mrs. G. Hagman, area chairman of the M.C.U.W.

Selected as chairman of the planning committee was Mrs. Leonard Stidwill, chairman of the Farmington Trinity Church. Mrs. R. D. Wedge of the Clarencville Methodist Church, chairman of the organizational meeting program group, and Mrs. Stidwill, chairman of the nominating committee. Members of the council, The president and two other members of the women's organizations of each of the six area churches, all eligible for membership in the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., met with Mrs. Leonard Stidwill, First Methodist Church, and Mrs. Fred Hamilton, First Presbyterian Church, and indicated their approval to the formation of a local council. Assistance at this first planning committee meeting was given by Mrs. J. Young, executive secretary of the Michigan Council of United Church Women, and Mrs. G. Hagman, area chairman of the M.C.U.W.

The organizational meeting was held Wednesday, October 30, at 1 p.m. at the Clarencville Methodist Church with officers for the new local council being elected. Mr. E. T. Cope was elected as president. Other officers chosen were: Mrs. Frederick Moss, vice president; Mrs. Stewart, recording secretary; Mrs. Walter Dordick, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. James Pender, treasurer.

Addresses were given at the meeting by Mrs. B. Donaldson, president of the United Church Women of Michigan, and Mrs. J. Young, executive secretary of the United Church Women of Michigan. Devotions and benediction were given by Reverend Elsie Johns, minister of the Clarencville Methodist Church.

At the close of the meeting tea was served in Fellowship Hall by the Women's Association of the Clarencville Methodist Church.

Noted Christian Scientist to Talk

The practical availability of unlimited spiritual good will be the topic of a lecture to be given by Theodore Wallach of Chicago, Illinois, in Fourth Church of Christ, Scientist, 5240 W. Chicago Blvd., Thursday evening, November 14, at 8 o'clock. The general public is invited to attend without charge.

Mr. Wallach's subject will be "Christian Science: The Availability of Unlimited Good."

Now on a nationwide lecture tour, Mr. Wallach is a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts. He is expected to describe the method of healing used in Christian Science.

Mr. Wallach was active in the music profession in Chicago as a private and conservatory teacher, subsequently entering the business world where he was active in various fields of merchandising.

Southfield Meth. To Have Bazaar

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Southfield Methodist Church will hold a fall bazaar on Saturday, November 9.

Mrs. Ward Polson is general chairman. Mrs. Glenn Nagle will be at the hand-work booth and Mrs. Robert Reetz will have aprons to suit everyone's taste. Mrs. Joseph Yoshimoto will be on hand at the variety booth.

Mrs. Marcus Wiljanen, with several assistants, will provide home-baked goods; Mrs. Wilfred Huggill will preside at the candy booth while Mrs. John Harlowe will peddle the home-canned jellies, jams and fruits. Mrs. Howard Perkins will supervise the kitchen, and will offer sandwiches, soup, a luncheon plate or a turkey dinner and a mince pie.

Bazaar hours will be from 11:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. The church is located on 10 1/2 Mile Road, just east of Telegraph Road.

Ella Irish W.C.T.U. Meets November 4

Mrs. Harold LaDoux of State Street was hostess to the Ella Irish Woman's Christian Temperance Union Monday, November 4, with plans for the new year being discussed.

Mrs. Ruth Erwin, a former member, was present and brought a message from the W.C.T.U. of Palm 1. Special guest speaker was Mrs. Paul Kenworthy, president of the 17th District W.C.T.U. for action on current problems as brought out at the National Convention at Madison, Wisconsin, and the State Convention in Lansing.

The annual convention for the 17th District will be held on November 18 and 19 at the Calvary Hotel in Detroit. It was indicated that Miss Ethel Riddle, national general secretary of the W.C.T.U., will be present. Council will speak at the banquet Monday evening at 6 p.m. and again on Tuesday.
