To Give Varied Film Program

A varied film program through the evening will be planned for the viewers of the Fall Film Program at the Redford Branch Library 21511 West McNichols at Grand River.

Highlighting the program will be films on Mexico, the Navajo Indians, and the place in nature of birds and insects. This all color film program will be shown Tuesday evening, November 19, at 7:30 p.m. Admission is free.

The complete program for the evening will be: "Mexico: Land of Color and Contrast." Scenes are shown of the Toluca market and the Floating Gardens of Xochimilco, along with views of Mexico City and its new university.

"Way of the Navajo." Depicts the way of life of the Navajo Indian, his native habitat, customs and ceremonies.

"Christophe's Castle." A tyrant's monument, an elaborate palace, a fortress, and a church, in the jungle of Haiti.

"Insects Are Interesting." Stressing the importance of insects to man, this shows typical insect life histories.

"Living Bird." Shows how birds fly, see, smell and hear, their courtship habits, nest building, and incubation.

The Redford Branch Library will present its fall film program each Tuesday evening through December 10.

Where the snows that we remember so much greater, or is it that we were three feet shorter and 40 years younger?

IF HUBBY HAD TO DO IT YOU'D SOON HAVE A NEW

Gas Clothes Dryer

Dad likes to think of himself as an efficiency expert. He'd lift, lug, haul and hang clothes one ONCE... and then before anyone tackled the job again, he'd find a better way to do it. Friend wife would have an efficient, economical, automatic Gas Clothes Dryer before another laundry day rolled around.
