

Named Area Sales Representative

The appointment of Donald E. Schmick of 23972 Richmondhill, Farmington, as sales representative for the Lady Esther Company in the Michigan, Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky was disclosed this week by Milton S. Samuels, general manager.

"Schmick was selected for the spot because of his wide experience in the cosmetic field," Samuels said.

A family man with two children, Schmick is very civic minded. He is chairman of the zoning and restrictions committee of the Farmington Township League as well as the Building and Plan Approach Committee of the Westgate Civic Association.

Book on Iron Mines In State Available

"Michigan Iron Mines," a new publication dealing with one of the state's leading industries, is off the press and available from the Conservation Department's geological survey division.

The booklet tells the story of Michigan iron ore, where it is located, its geologic occurrence, how it is found, and means of extraction.

Interested persons can obtain the publication by sending 25 cents to: Michigan Conservation Department Publications, Lansing 26.
