Along The Creek In Woodcreek

EMOGENE DAVIS MA. 6-1407

The month of November has been a busy one for Ray and Helen Reise. The death of Helen's uncle, was followed by the passing of Ray's father Frederick Reise in Detroit on Nov. 4. Burial services were held in Indiana.

Ray and Helen went pheasant hunting, and were also at their lodge at Bass Cove on Drummond Island for the opening of the deer season, returning Friday.

The third member of the Harry Lang family to celebrate a birthday in November was Laurel, who blew out three candles on her cake at a family dinner last Thursday. The family will go to Rochester to spend Thanksgiving day with the senior Langs.

Guests for the holiday at the Jack Richards home will be Florence's sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Warren, Janice, Robert and Jack, of Toledo.

Bill Scott and his brother-in-law, G. L. Lee, returned from their hunting trip near Algonquin Provincial Park, Canada, with two deer. Mrs. Lee stayed with Mary and Butch while the menfolk were away.

Other hunters in the subdivision were Gil Spillman, Art Thorsen who went to his camp near Black River, Dick Norwalk who hunted near Grand Marais, and Jim Davis who spent ten days on Drummond Island.

Emily and Andy Dynda attended a Knights of Columbus dance at Maplewood Hall Saturday night. They will go in to Detroit for Thanksgiving dinner with Emily's dad.

Jerry Dynda is home from college and has as a house guest his buddy, Douglas Swanson.

The John Mereshaks were to accompany the Dyndas to the K. of C. dance, but were unable to go as Betty has been ill with the flu for the past ten days. Betty is thankful that she doesn't have to prepare Thanksgiving dinner, as the family has been invited to spend the day with her niece in Wyandotte.

The Bob Weavers' daughter and her family, Ruth and Ralph Seifert, Bill, Cheryl and Laura Leigh, drove over from Grand Rapids for the weekend. Dick was home from Michigan State. Young Bob is spending his weekends and the holidays as the guest of the Navy in Turkey.

The Jim Davises had as houseguests for Thanksgiving weekend Emogene's brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Coleman, Sterling and Bruce, of Cleveland.

turned from Washburn, Wisconsin, Friday, with the good news that her father, William F. Garey is improving after a serious illness.

June Bieker and her children returned from Thanksgiving dinner. The

About 14 of Philo Wright's relatives will gather at the Wright home for Thanksgiving dinner. The
