Botsford Garden Luncheon Held

Colorful Chinese cherries, holly, green and hollyhock arrangements with colors of red, gold and purple mingled and lighted candles on the tables was the setting for the Botsford Garden Club Christmas luncheon held December 3 at Botsford Inn.

Mrs. William Lancaster gave an interesting reading on "Christmas Flowers" and an especially inspiring story on the Christmas Rose.

On display at the speaker's table was a fine collection of Christmas cards and an especially inspiring story on the Christmas Rose.

At the luncheon Mrs. Margaret Ward, program chairman, introduced newly elected officers of the club who are: Mrs. Emma Cartee, president; Mrs. Julia Michaels, first vice president; Mrs. Jesse Coleman, second vice president; Mrs. Margaret Mann, recording secretary; Mrs. Marjorie Cartee, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Anna Keller, treasurer.

Assistant hostesses Mrs. Pearl Marks, Mrs. Dorothy Waack and Mrs. Julie Neid, gift hostess.

Troop 258 Wing Scouts

Wing Scouts of Troop 258 are now working on their "analyst" report. They have made both model airplanes and gliders.

The girls of the group will be guests of the Air National Guard at a visit to Wayne Major Airport. They are also planning to attend the Senior Planning Board Square Dance at Royal Oak.

Service projects are high on the list of activities for girls of Troop 258. At present they are collecting eye glasses to be returned a nd presented to needy persons. Having participated in the Torch Drive, they are now completing work for their fifth annual Christmas party for patients at Whitehall Convalescent Home. They have made 40 combination comb and change purses for shut-ins there.

Members of Troop 177 have been working on their horsewomen's badge for the past five weeks. The horses they have been riding have been stabled at Royal Ranch.

Troop 178 will be going Christmas caroling at the McWilliam Convalescent Home where they also present their place mats to patients as gifts.

Upon return they will go to a members home for refreshments and the exchange of Christmas gifts. Dancing will also be enjoyed.

A holiday sleigh ride at the Ivory Farm is being planned for December 20.

The Troop is now selling mixed nuts. Anyone wishing to place orders are asked to call GR 4-8210.

Has New Asst. Leader

Troop 115 now has a new assistant leader, Mrs. M. K. MacIvaine. Christmas plans now underway including caroling and the presenting of gifts to convalescent children.

Members of the troop are also doing work on their cooking and hostess badges and are busy preparing food and serving it.

Four girls from Intermediate Troop 20 will be attending the Brownie Troop 317 meeting to present their troop flag.

This is the flag that Troop 20 used as Brownies.

The older girls will also teach the brownies a Grace and some scout songs.

Hold Cookout Indoors

Troop 171 ran into some bad weather for their planned cookout in Mrs. Reynolds' yard so they moved the cookout into her kitchen.

Next week members of the troop will go caroling and they will have a Christmas party on December 17 at Mrs. Billinger's home in Bel-Aire Subdivision.

The girls have made centerpieces for the parents and are now working on their textile badges. They have done textile and stencil printing on head scarves.

Mrs. Robert Smith has been teaching the girls how to utilize natural resources in dying.

The younger and newer girls in the troop are doing second class requirements now and working on their "My Troop" badge.

Proud of Homes

Home ownership is the highest in the long history of our nation, reports the Bureau of Census, which says that 60 percent of American families owned their own homes in 1956. This is much higher than the 48 percent ownership reported in 1950.

MRS. FREDERICK R. ORRIS, JR.

Ann Martindale Wed Saturday At Trinity Church

Ann Barry Martindale became the bride of Frederick Russell Orris, Jr., Saturday afternoon, December 7, at the Trinity Episcopal Church of Farmington. She wore a gown of alencon lace and satin. A coronet style cap of satin, trimmed with pearls, carried the fingertip veil. She clasped steepled fingers.

Jane Elliott Martindale was her sister in law's matron of honor. She and the bridesmaids were gowned alike in red velvet with matching velvet crowns.

The bridegroom's sister, Margaret Orris, served as bridesmaid and the bride's niece Jane Martindale was junior bridesmaid.

Gerard Arrangel, the groom's best man. Seating the guests were Frederick Cameron Martindale, brother of the bride, and Richard Parker.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Allan Howard Martindale of Farmington and Dr. and Mrs. Frederick R. Orris of Saginaw. They greeted guests at a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

Ford Museum Has Christmas Show Of Yesteryear

The Henry Ford Museum's Seventh Annual Holiday Exhibition, "Under the Christmas Tree," is now open in the museum's main exhibition hall.

Designed to feature toys, the exhibit shows the 18th and 19th century children's idea of Christmas and the toys they received.

The central motif is an old-fashioned balsam tree set in an old-time parlor of the 1890's with gifts and toys spread underneath. Strings of cranberries and popcorn decorate the tree, interspersed with hand-blown glass ornaments and decorated cookies.

Featured in the display of gifts and toys under the tree and in nearby cases is the museum's outstanding collection of dolls, toys, games, books and music boxes.

Since dolls played a big role in the lives of yesterday's children, a large number are shown. Included are a group of French Jumeau mechanical dolls, equipped with music boxes; the Edison talking doll of 1887-88, which has a record inside saying "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star"; a threeheaded doll, papier-mache and wax-headed dolls and early wood-jointed types.

Oldest toy in the display is a chest made for Patience Hall of Cheshire, Conn., in the style of the family home in 1781. Shaped in the manner of an 18th-century five-way Georgian house, it is lined with newspaper dated 1788.

Toys for young lads of that time will include sleds, skates, marbles, blocks and parlor games, toy banks, early jigsaw puzzles, wooden and cast iron pull toys.

Early children's books, which didn't make their appearance until the second half of the 18th century, also will be displayed.

In addition, the Detroit Doll Collectors' Club has made available for the exhibit some 50 dolls dressed in the national costumes of France, Germany, England and other countries imported during the 18th and 19th century for sale in America.

School Primary Money

Primary School Interest Fund checks, totaling $16,146.06, have been mailed to the office of each county treasurer. Based on the 1956 census figures, recently the payment amounted to $8.48 per capita. The 1956 census revealed 1,910,552 school age (ages 5-10) children in Michigan.

Garden Club Has Annual Tea

The Annual Presidents' Tea of The Farmington Garden Club was held on December 2 at the home of Mrs. W. J. Spicer on Farmington Road.

Mrs. David Krings read an original Christmas poem giving thanks for our many blessings.

New Officers elected for 1958 were:

President, Mrs. Walter Kaermer; 1st vice president, Mrs. Terrell Houston; 2nd vice president, Mrs. S. H. Kosmetzky; 3rd vice president, Mrs. T. R. Turvey; recording secretary, Mrs. H. F. Brown; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Robert Boys; treasurer, Mrs. Vincent Kierchner; and chaplain, Mrs. W. Allen Nelson.

Mrs. Keith Wolloughby directed the choral group in several Christmas songs, joined by all members present. Mrs. Krings narrated giving a history of the music.

Two Past Presidents presided at the beautifully arranged tea table decorated by Mrs. George Nashall.

Tasty refreshments were served by Mrs. Walter Coon and her committee.

Eve. Newcomers To Meet Dec. 18

A Christmas Decoration demonstration will be given at the next meeting of the Evening Newcomers Group of Farmington on Wednesday, December 18, at 8 p.m., at the Farmington Savings and Loan Building on Ten Mile just west of Orchard Lake Road.

Giving the demonstration will be Jean Stanley.

After the program, group caroling will be conducted.

These attending are reminded to bring a gift for a boy or girl for either the Farmington or Lapeer Hospitals. Since both are mental homes, it is asked that appropriate gifts be brought.

Reservations for those attending the meeting must be in by Monday, December 16. They can be made by calling Marilyn Daly, GR. 4-1642; Florence Milewicz, GR. 4-1011 or Marlene Theobald, GR. 4-9645.

C.A.P. Cadets Now Selling Christmas Trees

Due to financial needs, the Civil Air Patrol occasionally partakes in a money-making project such as the one the Farmington Squadron is co-sponsoring this Christmas.

Cadets are working with the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 4033, on their ninth annual Christmas tree sale. Since the sale opens in full swing Friday, December 13, the cadets have been diligently working on posters during their last few meetings.

Unknown to the cadets, the seniors of the C.A.P. squadron and the V.F.W. post donated cash prizes to be given the winners of the contest. The occasion was the last meeting when Mary Link, Joan Beck, Michael Kutsche, and Dan Spicer were awarded the prizes by the Squadron Commander, Lieutenant Jack Wick.

Christmas tree lots are at Siler's Market, 27610 Orchard Lake Road at 12 Mile; and Everett's Implement Company, 31200 Grand River, just east of Orchard Lake Road. Lots will be open through December 24 from 3:00 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. There are wreaths made by the Boy Scouts, Troop 48, on sale in addition to the spruce, pine and balsam trees available.

Further information may be had by calling Mayfair 6-3802 or Mayfair 6-3006 between the hours of 4:00 p.m. and 9:30 p.m.

Worth Saving

Nearly one third of the nation's $5 million private residences are in need of some repair and maintenance work, says the West Coast Plumbers' Association. Often times, a coat will add hundreds of dollars' value to a home, and years of life. Older homes can be re-modded and modernized to greatly increase the value. Frame homes lend themselves the easiest to enlarging and modernizing.

Participates In Concert At Ferris, Dec. 5

Ducan Cameron of 28845 Thirteen Mile Road was a participant in the annual Christmas Concert given by Ferris Institute students at Big Rapids, Michigan, on Thursday, December 5.

A general education student, Cameron is a member of the Men's Glee Club.

The concert this year marked the dedication of "Ferris Fidelity," a new song written as an alma mater for Ferris by Dr. Graham T. Overgard, professor of Music Education at Wayne State University.

Dr. Overgard is nationally famous for compositions for bands, among them, "Tartar Men," "A Merry Life," "The Snow Carnival," and "Gridiron Heroes." He attended the concert to present the alma mater to the College and to dedicate it to Ferris President Victor F. Spathe.

The concert was presented by four of the Ferris Music groups—the Concert Band, the Crimson and Gold Chorus, the Men's Glee Club, and the Women's Glee Club. The program included traditional Christmas carols and spirituals. Prof. Overgard's "The Snow Carnival" was among the numbers presented by the Concert Band.
