Military School Honor Winner

Jon Elsea, son of Dr. and Mrs. Deane Elsea of 28154 West 8 Mile Road, has been the recipient of numerous honors at Kemper Military School, Booneville, Missouri where he is a high school sophomore and first-year cadet. Elsea has been named to the dean's scholastic honor roll every month of the semester for maintaining a high scholastic average. He was awarded a varsity high school grid letter at Kemper Military School, Booneville, Mo. in an athletic assembly conducted by Lt. Col. J. G. Kravocze, director of athletics, for outstanding performance on his team this season. He has given recognition for his playing ability by his coach. A Christmas furlough began for Elsea December 20, and will continue until January 3.

'Skip the Clown' Needs Old Pistol

Farmington's own clown, Frank J. Klus of 28255 Orchard Lake Road, reported last week that he is very much in need of an old broken-down, obsolete and useless pistol that can be plugged and made useable to fire blanks with. He indicated that he was in need of it for the clown work he does in rodeos, grand opening, at summer picnics, parades, etc., as "Skip the Clown," meaning at the fact that his present one is almost noiseless. Anyone who has such a gun is asked to call Frank Klus at Mayfair 6-3263. In show business for the past 15 years, "Skip" has worked with such name people as "The Gaylords," "Cowboy Karp," "Rickey the Clown," "Marion Marlowe" and Jeanne Bikel who plays "Miss Christmas Carol" on Hudson's Christmas Parade.

Takes Tank Gunnery Training at Fort Knox

Pvt. John L. Hood, son of Mrs. Mary Hood, 22706 Farmington, recently completed two weeks of tank gunnery training at Fort Knox, Kentucky.

Hood, regularly assigned with the 1st Infantry Division's 8th Armored at Fort Riley, Kansas, received instruction in modern armored attack and fired his 90 millimeter tank gun in field exercises.

He entered the Army in July of this year and received basic combat training at Fort Riley.

He is a 1952 graduate of Farmington High School and was employed by Montgomery Ward and Company, Detroit, in civilian life.
