

Alta Loma Sub News

Mrs. Loren M. Jenks, Jr. GR. 4-3530

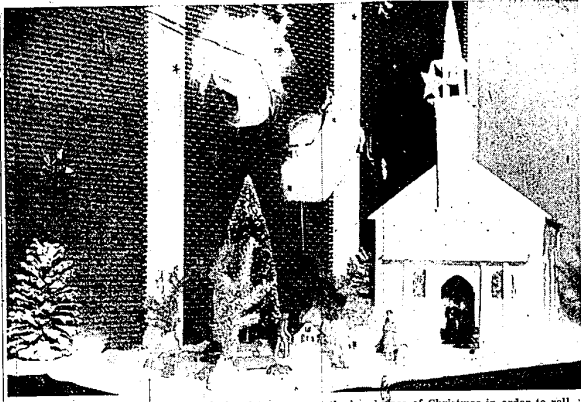

Al Nagy and company announced that they will abandon ship at the coming meeting of the Home Owners Association. The annual election of officers will be held on January 14 at 8:00 p.m. at the Farmington Savings Bank. Rumor has it that there are several savvy garbage collection officers being held for absentee voters.

The neighborhood will celebrate the ending of the holidays in real style on January 6 with a Twelfth Night of the Pelles' in the main night affair. Thanks to the initiative of the Pelles', the thing has crystallized into a tree-burning event (not your neighbors' shrubbery, please) to be held at about 7:30 p.m. on the south side of Conroy Court. Save your tired Christmas tree for the bonfire and your tired tenor for the accompaniment.

The Ralph Howards' home was a scene of merriment and festivity on Thursday night. The Howards, including an aunt and uncle from West Virginia.

Despite such losses as mentioned above, Christmas brought much light and gaiety around Alta Loma. The Pelles last Friday entertained for Cass Court, with just about everyone in that group attending the affair. The Theobalds Sr. reportedly took on a group from their end of civilization. The Isleys and Jenks joined forces on Friday at the Wislows to gather a crew from this part of the universe. Ingrid's sorority sisters and husbands on Thursday. The Ken Theobalds gathered the old-school ties from Redford on Saturday.

Lil and King Gates entertained some of King's relatives over Christmas, including an aunt and uncle from West Virginia. The Howards - Jane, Bud, Jan and Mark - spent Christmas week in Glenview, Illinois visiting Jane's family.

A MOST UNUSUAL Christmas display is one made up each year for the living room at the Herb L. Orman home at 21229 Waldron Street. It is a church scene, complete with miniature people, cars in the parking lot and trees in the background. The church itself, however, is what makes the display so highly unusual. It is made entirely out of a mixture of egg whites and powdered sugar. Mr. and Mrs. Orman, who work on the church, must begin nearly 11 months in advance of Christmas in order to roll out and allow each section of the church to dry sufficiently. The building, which stands 24 inches high from the ground to the top of the steeple, is approximately 12 inches wide and 15 inches long. Next year the Ormans indicated that they are planning to put pews and an altar in the church and have a small log Nativity scene outside. Mr. Orman is employed as a chef at Himmelpach's Restaurant.

Elect Blue Star Mothers Officers

Officers for 1958 were elected at the last regular business meeting of the Blue Star Mothers held December 19 at the Clarenceville Fire Hall. Elected for a second year as president was Mrs. Arthur Krueger. Other officers elected were Mrs. Edna Vandenberg, first vice-president; Mrs. Gale Morris, second vice president; Mrs. Gerald Jett, recording secretary; Mrs. Alfred Lint, Sr., financial secretary; and Mrs. H. A. McIntyre, treasurer. They will be installed on January 8 at 1 p.m. with several outside chapters being invited to attend the installation ceremony which will be held at the Clarenceville Methodist Church. Officers for 1957 and 1958 have been asked to be present at 11:30 a.m. for a short business meeting and to practice floor work. Annual reports given at the December meeting indicated that 1957 was a busy and industrious year for community services, hospital work and rehabilitation in the community. Christmas baskets were given to several members of the Blue Star Mothers who had been ill or unable to attend many of the meetings during the past year. The next regular meeting of the Blue Star Mothers will be held Thursday, January 16, at the Clarenceville Fire Hall. Members are also being asked to remember the March of Dimes bake sale scheduled for Friday, January 24, and to have their donations of baked goods ready for that date.
