Pastor Arrives at New St. John's American Lutheran Church Here

St. John's American Lutheran Church of Farmington welcomed its first full time pastor on Sunday, January 5. The Rev. Donald R. Good preached his first sermon before the mission congregation at the regular morning worship service at 10:30 a.m., held in the Farmington Junior High School Auditorium on Thomas Street.

Sixty-nine persons heard Pastor Good encourage them to live their faith in God, that they may be with Jesus for ever.

Famous Choral To Sing Jan. 19

The nationally-known Moody Chorus of the Moody Bible Institute in Chicago which has been making national tours for several years and will make its second appearance in this area will present a Sacred Concert at the Southfield Community Church, 21229 Indian, (near Eight Mile and Lakota) on Sunday evening, January 19, at 7:30, according to the Pastor, Raymond Bayne.

To Speak on Universalism

Members of the Farmington Universalist Church will bring their friends for a special sermon on "Universalism - The Religion of the Free Mind," Sunday, January 12, at 10:30 a.m.

The minister, The Rev. Walter E. Kollison, will discuss the necessity of freedom within the individual and relationships between individuals. He will emphasize the importance of freedom from dogmas, theological beliefs, and creeds, pointing out that freedom is the source of the moral values which govern man's relationship with man.

A concert hour in Adams Hall will follow the service. Mrs. Pierce Van Camp, chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. A. D. Benson and Mrs. R. E. Loucks.

N. Farmington Baptist Women To Meet Jan. 14

The Woman's Mission Society of the North Farmington Baptist Church will hold their first meeting of the New Year on Tuesday evening, January 14, at 7:45 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Donald Thompson, 33325 Cloverdale, Farmington.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Mrs. Gerald Wilson of Covenant Baptist Church. Mrs. Wilson is a writer with knowledge of the reviews and will talk on "Cross and Crisis in Japan" a study scene book.

Mrs. Marshall Sanders will be in charge of devotions.

Plan Old Fashioned "Hymn Sing" Jan. 17

An old fashioned "Hymn Sing" will be held under the sponsorship of the Wesley Fellowship group of the Orchard Methodist Church at the home of Mrs. Donald Thompson, 33325 Cloverdale, Farmington, at 8 p.m.

Leading the sing will be Jack Wilson of Walled Lake. Several special numbers will be rendered, and an invitation to the general public to attend has been extended. Following the program refreshments will be served.

Christian Science

The vital importance of following the example of the Master, Christ Jesus, in our thoughts and actions was emphasized Sunday at Christian Science services.

Keynoting the Lesson - Sermon entitled "Sacrament" is the Golden Rule from the Corinthians (5:3). "Let us keep the feast not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth."

Selections will also be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

New Kiwanis Heads Installed Tuesday Night

New Farmington Kiwanis Club officers for 1958 were inducted at a "ladies night" meeting held Tuesday, January 7, at Himmelspach's Restaurant.

Installed as president for 1958 was Roger Walker. Other officers installed were: Clifford H. Moorhead, first vice president; Charles Meryman, second vice president; Walter Gale, secretary; and Sydney Roney, treasurer.

What Kind Of Church?

- Check the items you are looking for in a church.
- () A friendly church—not too big.
- () A spiritual church—promoting the closest possible relationship between you and God.
- () A Bible-teaching church—giving you a thorough knowledge of the Scriptures.
- () A young people's church with an extensive spiritual and social program for youth.
- () A musical church with four youth choirs and other special music.
- () A non-denominational church—where people of all church background can feel at home.
- () A church that knows what it believes and teaches it, holding to the essentials of the Faith—especially the deity of Christ and the inspiration of the Scriptures.
- () A Gospel-preaching church—introducing people to a personal knowledge of God.

If you check most of these "yes," we have the kind of church you are looking for. Come and visit us, or phone, Elgin 6246 for a personal call or further information.
