Brighton JVs Edge Trojans

The Trojan J.V. squad met defeat at the hands of the Bulldogs in a very close scoring game. Although the Bulldogs managed to hold the high hand throughout the game, the Trojans outscored back within three points of the Brighton final score of 40.

In the last minute of the J.V. game, the Trojans outscored the Bulldogs 9-0.

Dick Ruttle scored 8 for the Trojans. Dick Van Arman was second with 7, and Rubins, Scholes and Jacobs each had 6. Scott Martin was Brighton's high scorer with 13 points.

F.H.S. Boy Bowlers Battling For Title

Pins are rolling at the Farmington Lanes every Wednesday afternoon with activities of the Boys' Bowling League well underway. All six teams are battling for the championship.

Team V and team III are presently battling it out for first place with team V holding a slim two-game lead.

The leading bowler as of January 13 is Howard Brenner at 140. He is followed by Rudy Pearson and Bill Spaller with averages of 139 and 138, respectively.

F.H.S. Intramural Cagers Active

The Intramural basketball players of Farmington Senior High completed their second round of games of the season last Monday, January 6.

Four teams comprise each of the two divisions, the Red Hawks and the White Cats.

Each team plays twice in its own division, and one team in the other division.

The winners of these games make up the league winners. The league winners, in return, meet in a playoff game to establish a winner from the two divisions.

In the first series played this year, the Sahibs of the Wild Cat division won 24-10. The Dukes of the same division won 49-17.

In the Red Hawk division, the Screw Balls won their game 22-19, and the Hot Shots won theirs, 30-28.

The Sahibs and Dukes, in the second series January 6, again won their games with 55-29 and 24-23, respectively.

The Intramural squad will play on Monday nights from 6:30 to 9:30 for the next four weeks.

Falcon Matmen Beat Southfield

The Falcon Varsity wrestlers avenged an earlier loss to the Southfield Jays by defeating them Thursday night, 33-20.

Farmington won the first six matches and gained a 26-0 lead. Don Margherini, Jim Marsh, Jerry Cassel, and Amos Deacon pinned their opponents while Don Hendryx and Tom Peckham won 10 - and - 0 decisions.

The Jays then showed signs of coming back as they did the first time they met Farmington. In the previous meeting the Falcons built up an impressive lead by winning in the light-weight classes only to have Southfield sweep the heavier classes and the meet.

In the last six matches Farmington salvaged a pin by Dan Ressler and a draw by Frank DePodesta. In Farmington's four losses Jay Rogers, Ron Jordan and John McCany were pinned and John Clark lost a 6-2 decision.

The Falcons' next meet will be against Walled Lake in the F.H.S. gym at 7:30 p.m.

O.L.S. Grade School Cagers Post Two Wins

In the O.L.S. Grade School Basketball League, Our Lady of Sorrows got off to a brisk start by polishing off Immaculate Heart in both the Junior and Midget classes.

The Midgets, coached by Bill Wall, took the U.M. fifth and sixth graders 24 - 16 Saturday afternoon. Rick Barth led the scoring with 16 points, followed by Mike Wall with 8.

The away game played at Catholic Central Gym was another victory, splurged by the trio of Riggio, Armstrong, and Barth. Paul Riggio sank 10 points, Jim Armstrong 9, and John Barth 8.

"A profitable rivalry!" in the words of Coach Dando. "Even if we don't win another game," he points out, "we have already done better than last year."

Newest device in home selling is the trade-your-home movement. If you have a home too small for your growing family or older than you wish, you can use it for a down payment on a new home. Realtors in many U.S. cities specialize in this home trading.

AS SOON AS WORKMEN moved out, students moved into the new Dunckel Junior High gym to make full use of the new facilities for a variety of recreational and physical education activities. Bleachers must still be put up, however, before it can be of much use as an auditorium for school meetings and other functions. Boys in the foreground can be seen enjoying some basketball practice. In the background, on the other side of the double gymnasium, a girls' physical education class is in progress. Although scheduled for completion much earlier, the gymnasium was not ready for students until after the Christmas holidays.

Falcons Find Southfield Cagers Too Strong, Slip Into 3rd. Place

Farmington, now in third place in the Inter - Lakes Conference, will meet co - leader of the league, Berkley, in a home conference game tomorrow night, at 7:00 p.m.

Berkley, who is in a first place tie with Van Dyke, met Walled Lake in a hair - raising thriller which led to a 53 - 32 victory for the Bears.

Another thrill is expected tomorrow night as the Falcons meet the Bears in an attempt to avenge their humbling defeats at Van Dyke and Southfield.

Berkley's three main high point men for the Walled Lake game were Lance Gentile, a six foot, one-inch senior who scored 16 points; Jack Vincent, 12; and Dave Harris, 11.

During the Farmington - Southfield game last Friday, the Jays began a scoring spree which left the Falcons trailing at the end of the first quarter, 20-8.

As the Jays continued their spree, the Falcons continually tried to overcome them, but found the task getting more difficult as Southfield zoomed to a 38 - 16 half time score.

The third quarter passed like the other two as the Jays still held the lead, 45-26.

The Falcons, in the fourth quarter, began to pick up a bit, but it was futile.

Tom Ridley of Southfield was the high-point scorer for the entire game with a total of 13 points. Bob Flair, also of the Jays, just trailed Ridley with 12 points.

Bill Wright had 10 points for Farmington to become the Falcons' principal scorer.

In another conference game, Van Dyke beat Waterford by a class score of 51-52 under the shooting of George Hinch with 21 points. John Herrington, from Waterford, was high-point man of the game with 22 points.

Debate Team Is Co-champs

The Farmington High Varsity Debate Squad is co - champion of the Inter - Lakes League for the season. They share first place with Waterford.

On Monday, January 13, Farmington's affirmative defeated Van Dyke's negative, and Farmington's negative defeated Walled Lake's affirmative in the fourth and final Inter - Lakes Debate League Tournament.

The final standings of the league for 1957 - 58 are as follows:

	W	L
Farmington	6	3
Southfield	5	3
Walled Lake	3	5
Van Dyke	2	6
Cranbrook	1	7

Farmington and Waterford will compete with approximately 50 schools in the district finals held in February. If Farmington should win this series, the squad would compete for the State championship with the seven other district winners throughout the state.

Practice debates will be held up to the district finals.

This is the first time in the history of the Debate Club that sophomore teams have become champions.

A trophy will be awarded to Farmington's victorious squad. Johana Walker and Donna Kay Valentant won their J. V. debate also.

Courage consists not in flinching before danger, but in seeing and conquering it. —Jean Paul Richter

Trojans Again Fall In Defeat

Clarencville Trojan cagers lost their fourth straight contest Friday, January 10, being downed by Brighton 46-16.

Coach Harry Fodick's Bulldogs pushed ahead in the early minutes of the game and held a substantial lead throughout.

The Bulldogs were led by scoring ace Brian Watson, who tallied a total of 27 points while playing for just a little over half of the game. Larry Andrews tallied 16 points for Clarencville. Simons hit for 10 and Wilson, 9. Russ Hudson followed Watson with 11 for the Bulldogs.

Brighton showed great scoring potential throughout the game but especially in the final minutes of the first period. The Bulldogs seemed unable to miss the bucket as they scored to reach a half-time total of 45.

Farmington JVs Trounce Jays

The Farmington J.V. basketball players trounced Southfield by score of 62-30 Friday, January 10.

Chuck Thompson led the scoring with 14 points, followed by Glen Ekey with 10, and Ralph Garry with nine. Thompson scored eight of his 14 points in the first quarter. John Anderson replaced Thompson in the second half.

The starting players were Chuck Thompson, Ralph Garry, Jim Larson, Glen Ekey and Roy Jordan. The whole team had a chance to participate in the forty.

The score at the end of the first quarter was 14-10 with Farmington leading. The Falcons, continued to lead throughout the game, at the end of the half 33 - 19, the third quarter 49 - 27.

The J. V. Falcons are victors of the three league games thus far this season.

YMCA Sat. Club Now Forming

The Northwestern YMCA is now forming a Saturday Club for young and old men alike who want to sharpen up on their physical fitness.

The Redford High School pool and gym will be open to club members from 1 to 4 p.m. each Saturday. YMCA officials said, with a qualified health director on hand to assist in performing as many physical fitness activities as they would care to or feel they can."

Membership can be taken out at The Northwestern YMCA office.
