

Alta Loma Sub News

Mrs. Loren M. Jenks, Jr. GR. 4-3530

The Alta Loma Home Owners Association met on the 14th to discuss plans for 1958 and elect officers. Mr. McNelly, of radio fame, will be this year's president. Senior vice president, Junior vice president and secretary-treasurer will be Al Tischenbein, Ed Kelly and Mrs. W. L. Pell, respectively.

Association directors are: Mr. Bentzel, Mr. K. Howard (Ralph), Mr. Karr, Mr. Kelly, Mr. Mosshamer, and Mr. Williamson.

Mrs. Pell states that new dues are now payable. Checks or money orders may be mailed to the Alta Loma Home Owners Association, Box 111, Farmington.

Thanks of all members were extended to last year's officers for their hard work and many accomplishments.

It was announced that the next meeting of the association will be held the third Tuesday in March.

Moore Drive's Mrs. Harris reports that all those cars last week belonged to Farmington and Livonia alumni of Marygrove, whom she was entertaining.

Our Alta Loma Drive west end group reports that the Ackermans have now left the farm and departed for new quarters. The children will miss the goats and geese, and Lou Brugman will have to find new ways to get his exercise.

Moore Drive friends are having a big laugh at astute and conservative businessman Ken Theobald, who spent last Saturday investigating a new merchandising venture: Northland. First trip for Ken.

Randy Jenks had that long-due tonsillectomy at Mt. Carmel Hospital on Monday. He asked us to tell all his skating friends that he will be back on the rink and on the school bus soon.

The Gill Road PTA will hold its square dance next Saturday at the school at 8:00 p.m. The group needs support from anyone who can make it. Not only that, this neighborhood is full of room mothers who need anyone buying. Anyone interested may contact Mrs. Pell or Mrs. Jenks, at GR 4-3530.
