T. Weisheits On Expense-Paid Bahamas Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Weisheit of 2330 Northwestern, Farmington are spending a week's expense-paid vacation in the Bahamas.

They are with a group of 16 Michigan businessmen and their wives who left Saturday, January 18 from the Detroit Wayne Major Airport on a non-stop flight to Andros Island, the Bahamas, via a chartered Pan American World Airways Clipper.

All are guests of the General Electric-Appliances Company of Detroit, who offered the "Mystery Isle" vacations as awards in a television sales contest.

None of the vacationers knew of the Clipper's destination until the plane was boarded, hence the "Mystery Isle" designation. The group is staying at the famed Lighthouse Inn on Andros Island which is a 15-minute flight from Nassau.

Weisheit is the owner of Toms Electric in Farmington. John Clappison Sells Insurance Phone GR. 4-3511

MRS. RUTH TROMBLEY

GR. 4-2050

Kay and Jack Wilson and children of Loomis Road spent their Christmas vacation in Dunedin, Florida visiting Jack's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson. A side trip to St. Augustine was reported throughly enjoyed by all.

Al Darien, Lamar Drive, is the new chairman of the Civic Improvement Committee for the Bel-Air Hills Civic Assn.

They now have a trio of girls at the David Clement's home on Loomis Road. Patricia Marie put in her appearance on December 30th.

The monthly pinchbeck club met at Mrs. Jack Martin's on Marblehead. Guests included Raye Sebastian, Pat Gilin, Gale York, Audrey Jonkins, Ann Riegio, June Siebert, Joan Stone. It was supposed to be a "come as you are" party but most of the girls got cold feet and "came as you should" instead. Mrs. Martin said.

Mrs. John Grimes of Marblehead planned a surprise birthday party on her husband. It seems they both were to go out to dinner while the guests assembled at their house, but John forgot his wallet so they had to make a trip back home. The guests were surprised instead of John and everyone had a good time.

Bel-Air Drug really cooperated in delivering the refreshments right on schedule. Mrs. Grimes reported.

Susan Misiak, 2 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Castimir Misiak, Loomis Road is confined to St. Joseph's Hospital in Pontiac. You all know how hard it is to see a little one in the hospital so let's all send her a get-well card today.

There was excitement on Leelanau the evening of January 11th when an ambulance pulled up in front of Bernard McPike's house to take Barbara to Harper Hospital. Jeffrey Bernard is the new baby's name. Mother, son and father are reported doing fine.

Ray Lindberg, Leelanau Road newly elected president of the Bel-Air Hills Civic Assn., has been bitten by the Asiatic flu bug.

The Altar Society of Our Lady of Sorrows had the election of their 1958 officers on January 9th at the Trinity Hall. Mrs. John Mereshak is president; Mrs. Cyril Johnson, vice-president; Mrs. Frank Nichols, secretary; Mrs. Leonard Walker, treasurer; Mrs. John Martin, financial secretary. They held their meetings on Thursday evening.

Wood Creek Assn. Elects Officers

Members of the Wood Creek Farms Civic Association elected William J. Thompson of 28921 Salem Road as their new president for 1958 at the organizations annual meeting held recently.

The association also selected two new board members. Chosen were Everett C. Billu of 29122 Ulley and Eric L. Janson of 30492 Northwestern Highway.

Other officers named to serve with Thompson were: Eric Janson, vice president; Leo N. Taylor of 28592 Westbrook Court, treasurer; and Everett Billu, secretary.

ning after the first Sunday of each month at 8:15 p.m.

The Farmington Players are pulling down on the play "My Three Angels" at the Farmington High School on February 14, 15, 21 and 22. The members to contact in this area for tickets are Sandy Brotherton, GR 4-6915; Jim Mather, GR 4-0021; or Bob Stone, GR 4-1572. Jim is also appearing in the play. Complete details appear in another story elsewhere in the paper.

Mrs. Frances Allen has given up reporting the Bel-Air news. Yours truly, Mrs. Ruth Trombley is going on to Sunday to attempt to carry on in her place. Please call any news that you have to me. The success of this column depends upon you! It is not possible to call each and every one of you so make the job easier and call me.
