"Grandma Miller", as she was commonly called, and who, for a number of years had resided with her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Dunham, on Farmington Road, died, while visiting another daughter, in Traverse City, Wednesday, January 29th.

For two years she had been in failing health, but passed away after only a week's critical illness. Funeral services, under the auspices of the Methodist Church, were held in Traverse City, and interment was near by. A large group of relatives and friends were in attendance. Traverse City was Mrs. Miller's former home.

Grandma Miller would have been 93 on her next birthday. Although of a quiet, retiring disposition, she had so many fine endearing qualities that all who knew her loved her. She will be sadly missed.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stamp, from Grand Rapids, were guests last weekend of the former's sister, Mrs. John Varhol and her family on Shady-side Avenue. A family dinner-party was held on Sunday for them.

Emerson Ault of Mayfield Avenue, who spent Christmas and the period afterwards in a Toledo hospital, gave his children a belated Christmas Party Saturday evening, February 1st. All were taken to the Statler, in Detroit, for dinner.

Besides Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Ault, those present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunter, from Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson, from Livonia; Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Porter, from New London, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Ault, of Livonia; and Mrs. Tom Moore, from Monroe.

During their elder's absence, Big Sisters among the fifteen grandchildren of the host and hostess, did a capable job baby-sitting for the small boys and girls. The majority were gathered at the home of Forrest Ault.

Mrs. V. C. Reddy, of Shady-side Avenue, Mrs. Paul Haudermark, of Farmington Road, and Mrs. M. E. Ault, of Mayfield Avenue, dined at the International Institute in Detroit Thursday. Mrs. Louvenia Nagger, of Detroit, was a fourth member of their party. The dinner, on this occasion, featured Greek dishes.

Karen Grundy, who attends Valparaiso University, in Indiana, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Grundy, on Hubbard Avenue.

Mrs. Grace Simpson, Mayfield Avenue, spent the last ten days with friends in Birmingham.

Their granddaughter, Terry, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Vance, of Mayfield Avenue, home from a week - end visit with their daughter, Mrs. Jack Faler in Cleveland, and is now their guest.

Mrs. Harold McVicar, of Shady-side Avenue, and her soldier son-on-leave, Harold, are spending a few days with friends in Ohio.

Mrs. Louis Morgan and Mrs. Clinton Ault, of Mayfield Avenue, visited with their cousin, Mrs. Vera Cooley, in Dearborn, Friday afternoon. Mrs. Cooley is quite ill.

This week all our local kindergartners were presented with tickets to the Shrine Circus. Under the escort of parents, most of them witnessed the performance.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schult, of Shady-side Avenue, were Sunday guests of their daughter, Mrs. James Maynard and her family, in Ecorse.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Ault, of Shady-side Avenue, were Monday evening dinner - guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Seger, in Farmington.

Mrs. Betty Seagrigh has sold her property on Norfolk Avenue and moved to another location. The new owners will shortly be taking possession.

The Hubbard Avenue home being constructed by Charles Bolyard is rapidly near completion and expected to be occupied soon.

While at play recently, Johnnie C. Ault, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Altama, Jr., Rensselaer Avenue, accidentally received severe head injuries which have kept him under a doctor's care for the past week.

Mrs. Norman Kauranen, who on January 27th underwent surgery at Art Center Hospital, is expected home shortly.

Kenneth Skow, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Skow, Sr., Mayfield Avenue, is reported dangerously ill.

Leslie Grundy, Sr., of Hubbard Avenue, who had been on the sick list for the past few weeks, has now returned to his employment.

Austin Ault, Brentwood Avenue, who had been ill with a throat infection, returned to his employment Wednesday. Other members of his family are still ill.

Jeanie Allan, Mayfield Avenue, who fell breaking a leg January 29th, is now getting about the house on crutches. A special teacher comes to her home to help her keep up with her studies.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dunham, Farmington Road, who had planned a vacation in Florida, have now, because of the death of Mrs. Dunham's mother, postponed the trip.

Marvin Addis, formerly a resident of Norfolk Avenue, but now living in Pontiac, was a recent visitor in his old neighborhood.

Goodwill Industries from Detroit will again be collecting household discards in the Farmington area on Monday and Tuesday, February 17th and 18th. of crop surpluses and also markets a large portion of all farm products is rapidly replacing private and cooperative selling agencies. Compensatory payments for farmers and government price fixing in agriculture, business, and labor are, in reality, attacks on the price system.

"A third area of government control over individuals that is necessary in a Socialist dictatorship is limitation on the choice of an occupation. We are, as yet, relatively free to choose and change our work. However, the closed shop, long apprenticeship periods, unduly restrictive license requirements in several professions, and the proposed subsidies to induce inefficient farmers to stay in agriculture are straws in the wind that indicate danger ahead of us.

Forced leveling of the Socialist dictator over individuals is regulation and averaging of income. The theory of the Socialist is that since all are born equal, all should remain equal regardless of ability or effort. This is accomplished by extremely high income taxes, constantly increasing social security payments, socialized medicine, increased minimum wages, and income payments to farmers to replace competitive prices.

"A fifth measure of our drift toward Socialism is the degree of substitution of federal government authority for state and local responsibility. Supreme Court decisions limiting states rights, federal aid to schools and roads, federal housing, the $72 billion federal budget are all straws in the wind. How much further down this road to Socialism must we go before we heed the warning signs?"

According to National Association of Manufacturers' statisticians, 47.1 per cent of current defense spending is accounted for by the Air Force; 21.4 per cent by the Navy; and 23.5 per cent by the Army. The remaining two per cent goes for interservice projects.

Goodwill Pickup Scheduled Monday
