PRINCESS REDBIRD

Entertains With Indian Dances

Now putting on Indian dance performances each weekend at the Post Exchange at Guffin's Frontier Town in Farmington is adorable little five year old Della Marie "Princess" Redbird.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chief Redbird, of 2208 Harding Detroit, Della has been dancing in Indian fashion ever since she was old enough to walk. She learned the various steps from her father who is a full-blooded Cherokee. Mrs. Redbird said. Recently she appeared on the Our Friend Harry show seen locally on Channel 7.

For two years Chief Redbird had his own television show, "Tom Tom Matinee." He is now on hand each weekend at the Frontier Town Post Exchange where he has a wide variety of Indian supplies for sale, both retail and wholesale. Besides the dances done by his young daughter, the chief entertains visitors with Indian music provided by his own band.
