GOOD TURN TODAY?

Have you done your good turn today? . . . Boy Scouts, as you probably know, pledge to do a good turn every day—and right now, throughout the land, the Scouts are conducting a National Safety Good Turn. The Spring phase of the program will stress traffic safety and you'll be encountering Scouts at service stations throughout Michigan in the weeks ahead. They'll be distributing literature on safe driving, doing their bit to help reduce traffic accidents. . . Michigan's trucking industry salutes the Boy Scouts of this great state and pledges all-out support of the Scouts' Safety program. Professional truck drivers are thoroughly trained in safe driving practices and many of them operate hundreds of thousands—even millions—of miles without an accident. They are happy to join the Scouts in urging Michigan's motorists to Drive Carefully!

Speaker George Van Pearsom (R-Zealand).

PERSONALITY PARADE: Rep. Russell H. Strange, Jr. (R-Clare) is the youngest state legislator and, despite his youth, is making his weight felt.

Unmarried, he became famous for a crack during debate on a subject involving the fair sex. Blushing a trifle, he strode to the microphone to say:
'I don't feel I'm qualified to speak on this subject.'

Strange was elected following a stiff fight in the primary when he ran against his political science professor at Central Michigan College. At the time of the election he was too young to take office. Since his 21st birthday took place before the legislature convened, he was able to take his proper seat at the first session.

His interests stress government at the local level.
In session Strange introduced more than 14 bills, most of which are designed to provide more effective control of political affairs and government services in the individual.

These include provisions which would give the probate court permission at its discretion to release names of juvenile offenders; permit the engagement of a deputy treasurer with permission of a township board; improve administration of county road commissions; and a school aid bill.

He is especially interested in a bill which would remove the power of a village to levy a poll tax, which he thinks should be done in the interests of keeping state law modernized.
He is also anxious to pass a bill which would permit delegates to a Fall County Convention to elect officers of the County Committee including its chairman.

They were among 1,204 students who successfully completed degree requirements at the end of the fall semester. The Horace H. Rackham School of Graduate Studies claimed the most graduates with a total of 472 receiving either master's degrees or doctorates.

Looking Ahead
By DR. GEORGE B. FENSON
In an awakening sense of urgency in the vitally necessary goal of bringing a better understanding of the American way of life. For more than 20 years I have been saying that it is our duty to preserve our priceless heritage, our unique economic and governmental system, the children of America must be sold on its advantages. The structure of American freedom will not survive just because it is right—unless each oncoming generation understands and teachers throughout the nation—and their responses have been another of the inspiring signs strengthening my confidence in the future of our country. His needs have been mailed to schools in all sections of the nation, where it is hoped they will help form the basis for a well organized course. Thus, ultimately millions and millions of children will be reached with a better understanding of our American way of life.

Joining Up:
Here are some of the school people, parents and organizations that have written for the course outlines: Dover City Teachers' Association, Dover, Ohio; Board of Education, Jersey City, New Jersey; Foundation of Economics Education, Irvington-on-Hudson, New York; Virginia Family Bureau Federation; Alan Clem; Press Secretary, Congressman R. D. Harrison, Norfolk, Nebraska; Lincoln High School, Fort Smith, Arkansas; Fort Lauderdale High School (Florida); St. Louis High School (Missouri); Haverhill High School (Massachusetts); Powell (Wyoming) School System.

Scores of industries have asked for the outlines to prepare courses for their management; employee teams; Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company, Revere Copper and Brass, Neptune Meter, Company, M. A. Hanna Company, Frederick and Nelson (Division of Marshall Field and Company), Montana Ferroalloys, Inc., James Farrell and Company (Seattle), etc.
We are supplying a set of five course outlines at cost of printing—50 cents. If your high school doesn't have an American citizenship course, chances are the school people would be glad to work with interested parents in organizing one. The course outlines would be helpful. It is an opportunity to join the forces working aggressively to maintain our system of freedom. How about it?
